

FORT ROCK

By ROBERTA McGEE

The Fort Rock school children entertained with a Halloween party at the school gym Friday afternoon, October 29. The children were in charge of the arrangements with guidance from their teacher, Mrs. Anne Sloan. Several mothers were present to help make the afternoon a merry one, in the gayly decorated gym.

The crew at the mill and logging operations and Charley Stingley played fire department again when Rose McGee called in that her barn was on fire, Tuesday afternoon. Rose noticed the smoke and wet it down which slowed the fire. No major damage was done to the barn, some timbers were burned through. The fire was caused by a little boy who was playing with matches.

Election of officers will be held at the next Fort Rock Grange meeting to be held November 13. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Anne Sloan went to Bend Saturday, October 30, with her daughter, Mrs. Bud Salisbury, of Crescent and visited at Crescent until Sunday.

Walter McGee met with an accident the afternoon of October 27, when he fell from the swing and the swing board hit him in the head. He is all right now.

Century ranch well Number 2 tested October 27, pumps 3,600 gallons of water each minute. Well Number 2 is located approximately a quarter of a mile from well Number 1 which pumps 5,000 gallons per minute. The new well was drilled by Hardin Well Drill Company, Boise, Idaho. The hole was 18 inches and went to a depth of 110 feet, this well will serve as a sprinkler system and for domestic use. The sprinkler system will cover an area of 120 acres which will be used for permanent pasture. Another well will be started next week about a mile and a half from the new well.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Baert and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pitman were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGee and Mrs. Schneider last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGee and boys and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McGee went to Klamath Falls October 29 to attend a football game, they returned home late Saturday evening.

Mrs. Bud (Helen) Parks was heard on the radio over station KBND 12:45 p.m. October 28. Mrs. Parks had made a tape recording of her speech which she had presented at the sixth annual state association of soil conservation districts. The topic of her speech was, "Water Problems in My Soil Conservation District and on My Ranch."

A youth committee Halloween party that was held at the grange hall October 30. Costumes were gay and spooky. Winning prizes for their costumes were Donna and Douglas-Hergert, children's division; in the adult group taking prizes were Nona Frazee and Sid Munnerlyn. Marge Iverson, Silver Lake, won the door prize which was a blanket. A scary spook house gave quite a thrill to those who went through. Halloween games were played and there was dancing later in the evening. A fish pond kept the youngsters busy fishing for prizes. A reminder that the Fort Rock Grange Hall the evening of November 6 at 8 o'clock. There will be distinguished visitors from Lakeview present. Parents and all friends are cordially invited to attend. The supper will be potluck.
