HUNTERS' STEW AND DUMPLINGS were ready to be served by Lewis Hornby, left, and John Stewart at the Scoutmasters' camping trip at Denny Creek last week. The overnight camping trip climaxed a nine-week Scoutmasters training course.

The Klamath district board of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs met Tuesday, November 9, at the home of the district director, Mrs. Charles Thurman, Klamath Falls.

Clubs represented were Malin, Bly, Evergreen, Juniper, Mt. Laki, Lost River, Bonanza and Klamath Falls.

Tentative date for the first district Christmas holiday workshop was set for Saturday, December 11, at the exhibit building at the fairgrounds. Confirmation of this date and details of the workshop will be announced.

All club members interested in making Christmas decorations are asked to bring a sack lunch for the all-day workshop. Coffee will be served at a nominal cost. There is no admission charge.

Each garden club is asked to sponsor some project of Christmas decoration—candlemaking; table, mantle and buffet arrangements; gift wrapping; corsages, Christmas cards, wreaths, swags, garlands, favors, etc.

By Garden Club, through the president, Mrs. Dave Campbell, volunteered to be host at the district spring meeting in April.

The district accepted the invitation of the Klamath Basin Potato Festival Association to sponsor the Junior flower show held in connection with the festival in the fall of 1955.

It was voted to postpone a district flower show tentatively scheduled for August, 1955, because of the Flower Show School, Course 4, which will be held in September of next year.

Mrs. S. H. Dahler, Evergreen president, was appointed to contact Klamath Forest Protective Association for 500 evergreen seedlings to be used as favors from Klamath district at the state convention in June.

All clubs were urged to promote the sale of Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs' cook books. Mrs. Joe Schuh is chairman of the cook book committee.

Mrs. Harry Frazier, Bonanza, treasurer of Klamath district since its inception, requests that in order to clear the records, all garden club treasurers send her the complete record of all annual dues paid into the district since its organization in June, 1952.

Mrs. Robert Holle, Malin president, displayed the silver president and vice president's pin supplied by national council. Mrs. Thurman suggested that all clubs award themselves this service.

Mrs. Thurman announces the following panel of chairmen: awards and scholarship, Mrs. Will Woods; birds and wild flowers, Mrs. N. E. Nyhart; corsage, Mrs. Duane Alexander; flower show school, Mrs. Scott McKendree.

Junior garden clubs and cook book, Mrs. Joe Schuh; newsletter and press, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor; parliamentary, Mrs. Fred Earlson; program, Mrs. I. W. White; scrapbook, Mrs. J. R. Miller; slides, Mrs. J. A. Overton; all of Klamath Falls.

Year book, Mrs. Wilbur Reiling, Bonanza; conservation, Mrs. Chester Main, Tulelake, California; flower show judges, Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Merrill; garden therapy, Mrs. Leo Gloster, Alturas, California; historian, Mrs. William Hartley, Bonanza; horticulture, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Bonanza.
