

MR. AND MRS. MARTIN GIFT... whose wedding was an event of fall in Mt. Laki Community Church, October 30. Bride is the former Donna Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon; and Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Langell Valley, both prominent Basin families.

Gift-Dixon Wedding Rites Social Event of Fall In Mt. Laki Community Church

MT. LAKE—Candlelight, large yellow and white chrysanthemums arranged with fir boughs and cones, formed the attractive background in Mt. Laki Church for the October 30 wedding of Donna Dixon to Martin Gift. The Rev. William Ainley read the double-ring ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Langell Valley. Donna, escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, was lovely in a white gown of French embroidered tulle over taffeta; the fitted bodice and shrug bolero were of taffeta; and embroidered tulle with a wide ruffle of the plain net were gathered into the full, floor length skirt. Her fingertip veil of lace edged net was borrowed from a cousin, Mrs. Russell Fairchild.

Donna wore the traditional blue garter, lucky coin and for the "Old"—a pair of bedroom earrings that belonged to the bridegroom's mother. She carried an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis on a small white Bible.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids all wore emerald green taffeta dresses, with hairline length skirts with bustles, and low necked princess bodices. Matron of honor was Mrs. Merrill Bond, bride's sister. She carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and wore a harmonizing garland of flowers in her hair.

Two other sisters, Mrs. Ronald Whitlatch and Mrs. Ernie Hills; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harold Dixon; and her niece, Jennie Hill, were bridesmaids. All carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums; and wore pearl necklaces and narrow emerald-green headbands trimmed with seed pearls.

Flower girl, Dale Susan Noble, bridegroom's little niece, wore white taffeta; and carried a basket of petals, which she scattered down the aisle. Ring bearer, Larry Whitlatch, bride's nephew, carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Dave Meeker served as best man; Luther Noble, honorary attendant, and Robert Hill, Elmer Creamer, Richard Hill and Harold Dixon ushered.

Susie Williams, organist, accompanied Eleanor Ann Jackson, who sang "On This Glad Day" and "The Lord's Prayer." Candlelighters were Donna Tillman and Lois Wise.

The mothers of the nuptial couple were charming in blue dresses—Mrs. Dixon, in a figured slate-blue two piece, worn with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and stephanotis; and Mrs. Gift, in royal blue with pink accessories; also wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dayton Finchum sang "At Dawning" immediately after Donna and Martin walked together down the aisle after the ceremony.

The reception was in the church parlor, attractively decorated in evergreens. The beautiful wedding cake, baked by close family friends, Mrs. Orval DeVaul, Mrs. Owen Pepple and Mrs. Ivan Bold, was topped with rosebuds and wedding bells; and centered a table decorated with small sprays of evergreen in a scattered arrangement.

After the couple cut the first piece of the cake, it was served by Mrs. Richard Hill, Mrs. Russell Walsh, Mrs. George Ferguson and Mrs. Michael O'Keefe. Mrs. R. L. Fleming and Mrs. E. H. Hills poured; at the punch bowl were Mary Lucille Dillard and Mrs. Richard Barber; Winnie Guber and Ruth Stermer registered the guests; Karen Dixon and Virginia Noble, nieces of the bride and bridegroom respectively, presented guests with the token pieces of groom's cake; and Mrs. Wilbur Harnsberger Jr. and Mrs. Marion Jack, assisted.

AS A SURPRISE to the bride, members of the Oregon State College Mountain Climbing Club, who were guests at the wedding of former member, Donna Dixon, brought a supply of ice-axes with them; which, they, and a few relatives and friends, held to form an arch for the bridal couple.

At the left, from front to back, Michael O'Keefe, bridegroom's brother-in-law; Ruth Stermer, OSC Mountain Club member; Richard Barber, also member; and Richard Hill, bride's nephew.

Girl Scout Silver Tea

At a beautifully decorated table in the home of Mrs. Emil Albrecht, 319 Pacific Terrace, friends of Girl Scouts of the Klamath area gathered for a silver tea Saturday, October 30. The tea attended by nearly 100 was given in honor of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the Girl Scout movement in this country. Centerpiece of the table was a profusion of fall colors, yellow to terra cotta, carried out with chrysanthemums. Mrs. James W. Fininger and Mrs. Elmer Harnden poured.

Mrs. Walter Beane, chairman of the tea committee, was assisted by Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. John Fowler and Mrs. Gordon Loomis.

Senior Scouts, in bouffant gowns of pastel colors, assisting were the Misses Sally Robinson, Barbara Moore, Carolyn Bullard, Joan Marshall, Sandra Dexter, Sharon Dewing, Marla Weed, Darlane Cone, Jeanne Wastad, Donna Hubbard, Joyce Johnson, Evelyn Thorne and Sharon Hahn.

Contributions received at the tea to restore to its original condition the birthplace of Mrs. Low in Savannah, Georgia. It will provide a shrine and center for Girl Scouting in this country. The Victorian home has four stories, a first floor with a library, dining room, drawing room and huge curved piazza; second and third floors with four large bedrooms each. There is space on the first floor for meeting rooms. Other features include beautiful chandeliers, fireplaces and a handsome curved staircase. It will be refurbished as it was when Juliette Gordon Low lived there.

Besides housing memorabilia of the founder, the home will display treasures the Girl Scout organization has accumulated through the years; gifts from other Scout and Guide groups; mementos of other builders of Girl Scouting; and pictures and documents historically significant to the organization. Too, Girl Scouts visiting at the home can exchange Scout information which will be valuable to their own troops.

TEENAGE PARTY

BONANZA — A Halloween party was given by Diane Swigler and Joan Daley, at the Swigler home on Pine Flat, Saturday evening. The teenagers enjoyed games and contests, with Halloween refreshments served late in the evening to Sidney Ketchum, LaVonne Sexton, Margaret Rodgers, Sherry Crawford, Rex Porterfield, Warren Dye, Bobby Lee Ronald Ketchum, Bobby and Billy Liskay and Joan and Diane.

bridgroom, represented her mother in the reception line, as Mrs. Gift has been ill, and was unable to stay after the wedding. Mrs. Jim O'Donahue and Cora Egan played background music during the reception.

For travel by air to Springfield, Ohio, Donna chose an autumn brown suit with darker brown accessories, and a rust topper. She wore a white chrysanthemum from her bridal bouquet as a shoulder corsage. Martin and Donna will leave Springfield in their factory-new pickup, and will drive it back through the Southern Route; sight-seeing along the way. After the wedding trip, they will be at home in Langell Valley.

Out of town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hills, San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hills, Burlingame; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barber, Ruth Stermer, Robert Hill, Joan DeMerritt, Eleanor Jackson, Mary Dillard and Jerry Cone, Oregon State College; and Sharon Finchum, University of Oregon.
