

REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

WHEN THE dinner bell rings at the MC Ranch home of Oscar and Jo Kittredge near Adel (hdqtrs of Warner Valley Stock Co) — houseguests are at the table before the first "ding" dies. Helen Messner — Adel, graciously consented to take over the cooking for the hungry hunting hordes this fall — and now that some of them have sampled her superb cooking — Helen — not hunting! — will very possibly be the main attraction. — First to arrive in the current crowd of houseguests was Dennis Morgan and a couple of friends from LA — Dennis between TV and movie productions frequently heads for the Oregon hills and is familiar local figure — Others who will share the famous Kittredge hospitality are Norman Blitz and E. R. Cord. Reno — H. C. Smith, president of American Airlines and Baron Kidd from Dallas — Texas — Senator Guy Gordon and party — Don and Elva Kenyon from KF and Ted Conn and sons from Lakeview — First meal served by gastronomical genius Helen was breakfast at 5 a.m. — and she is now getting used to not knowing whether 10 or 20 will join the mealtime rush.

HUNTING WIDOWS — of Yacht Club members can duck the dinner and dishes problem this Sunday — by taking the small fry out to the club where Mike and Beulah Regan will offer a choice of roast turkey and the "works" or Virginia baked ham — of course husbands who are in town are more than welcome — Members may bring guests — Call the club for reservations.

REAMES annual fall luncheon was a success in spite of last-minute chaos caused by an automobile accident in which club managers Don and Elvera Hutton were injured — just the day before the scheduled BIG club event — Plans shifted from "cancel" to "continue" and back to "cancel" and the situation looked pretty grim with some 100 luncheon reservations made and no food — Commodore Nell Black of the Yacht Club hearing of the sad, sad situation came thru handsomely by offering Mike and Beulah Regan's expert help — they had part (VERY small) of Thursday and Friday a.m. to make arrangements — prepare food etc and serve it in a strange place — The grateful gals at Reames and Don and Elvera have been talking all week about what a swell job the Regans did — and what a grand gesture it was for Commodore Black to save the day — that's America.

UPON ASKING to be brought up to date on the "doin's" of one of my favorite "watched-her-grow-up" gals — Diane Oldenburg — sophomore at the U of Nevada — I concluded that she's a very busy femme — about three weeks after school started she was initiated into Tri-Delta sorority — then was chosen as 1 of 14 to represent her chapter house at Homecoming Week activities last weekend — The Delta Delta Delta house went thru the usual weeks of work on skits — floats etc for which prizes are given on h-coming weekend — AND the Tri-Deltas won 1st prize for their skit — She's a member of the college choir — and her ability and talent received added recognition when she was selected to sing in a 12-girl choir — her strides in singing at Nevada, are good news to her vocal instructor Eloise McIntyre — With this background — the nursing major will be able to sing restless patients to sleep if she follows the "capped career."

HOUSEGUESTS at Mrs. Francis (Marjorie) Olds' Riverside Ave home will keep it humming this weekend — when the Bob Shaw family arrive from Coos Bay with their four Shaw sprouts — Stephanie, 9 — Scott, 7 — Dan, 4 — and Elizabeth Ann, 6 weeks.

HOMER AND INEZ DeLamater — who live out Henley way are back from a successful elk hunt in the Baker country — where both were the hunter — They joined a jeep-owning couple up there and really got into virgin territory — the little bus took the hardships out of hunting — and both men got their elk.

ROMA THOMAS — (Mrs. Jerry T.) on a trip to Davenport, Iowa for a very special occasion — Her mother and dad Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Priester will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary Nov 17 — Roma left the latter part of Oct via great Northern from Everett — Wash with two of her suns — who will also be at the anniversary celebration — This is Roma's first trip home in 10 years.

MALIN VFW Auxiliary met at the VFW Hall, Tuesday evening, October 26, with nine members present.

Members voted to send Christmas donations to four different veterans hospitals in Oregon and, as has been the custom in the past, to send a year's subscription of Look Magazine to the Roseburg Veterans Hospital. A donation was also made to the Tri-City Ambulance project by the Auxiliary. A one year subscription to the Herald and News was sent to Kenneth Green, local boy, who is in Portland in the T.B. Hospital.

Mrs. Ray Vander headed the committee appointed to pack boxes of homemade candies for the service boys overseas. Other Malin boys in the service, but stationed in the states will be sent boxes later.

A report was made on the supper served during the VFW Potato Queen elimination dance; and the district meeting held in Klamath Falls October 17, was reported upon by Mrs. Henry Vacknitz and Mrs. Walter Stantny, who had attended the meet.

Auxiliary president, Blanche Beldraine, announced that at the next meeting, November 9, Mary Lou Swisher, district president will make her official visit and inspection. She urged all the members to attend this important meeting.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER CONRADY... married October 27, in First Methodist Church. The Rev. Lloyd Holloway officiated at the candlelight ceremony. Mrs. Conrady is the former Virginia Peterson, daughter of Mrs. May Sawchuck, former Klamath Falls resident, now living in Salem; and Walter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Conrady, also former local residents. After a brief wedding trip to San Francisco, the new Mr. and Mrs. Conrady will be at home, 2665 Radcliffe. He is with the City Police Department; and the bride is secretary at Mills Elementary School.

Prosperity Social Club met at the home of Mrs. A. E. Street Thursday evening, October 23. Mrs. Mervyn Wilde, president, was in charge of the business meeting; during which plans were made for a guinea dinner similar to that held last year. Food committee chairman were appointed for the dinner and the menu was planned. A definite date was not set but is expected to be held sometime after the first of the year. The committees will meet soon with a Masonic committee to make final arrangements.

Reports were given on the two recent food sales handled by the club and members voted to turn the money over to the Masonic Lodge for necessary work on the Masonic Hall kitchen. Friendship night combined with pass matrices and patrons night will be held at the next meeting of Prosperity Chapter on Thursday, November 11.

Election of officers for the new term will be held at the December 6 meeting and joint installation ceremonies with the Masons will be held.

Faculty Wives and Women's Club At OTI Plans Supper Meeting

OTT Faculty Wives and Women's Club met in the Student Lounge Tuesday night, November 9, with Mrs. Robert Smith presiding over the business meeting. Mrs. Dick Turner, Mrs. Al Smith and Mrs. Donald Hagen. Mary Ann McConnell spoke on the aims and work of the 4-H Club with its 25 kinds of projects. Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, program chairman for the evening, had arranged a very interesting hobby show. She displayed a few of her most unusual pitchers chosen from her collection of nearly 200. Other members showed collections of bird figurines, horses, stamps, oil paintings, ceramics, crocheted afghans, table cloths, knitting, half century old quilts, miscellaneous art objects from around the world, driftwood arrangements and weathered glass. The latter was displayed by Mrs. Jack LaGrande. Mrs. LaGrande stated that only the glass made prior to 1916 has this characteristic. When exposed to the ultra violet rays of the sun some old glass undergoes a chemical change and turns amethyst in color. The December meeting will be a supper to which the husbands will be invited. It will be in the school cafeteria — the date and time to be announced later. The hostesses, Mrs. Jack LaGrande, Mrs. Merin Pulliam, Mrs. Ed Stang and Mrs. Al Geiss, served delightful refreshments at the close of the evening and awarded the special prize to Mrs. Dick Turner.

"Our Miss Brooks" Presented By KUHS Players at Library Club

Sparkling with typical "Miss Brooks" quips, "Our Miss Brooks" Klamath Union High School Little Theater production delighted the members of the Library Club at the November meeting, Monday, November 8. Mrs. Roberta Blomquist, head of the KUHS drama department, directed the three act farce which was taken from the original R. J. Mann Script. Differing slightly from the popular radio program, the play depicted the situations and problems of a small high school. Jackie Ackerman played the vivacious Miss Brooks and Larry Barleen was the tyrannical Mr. Conklin. Don Stilwell was Ted Wilder, a role played also by Bill Burk. John Clark was Hugo Longacre, and the counterpart of Mr. Boyington. Acting also in this part is Ruben Peterson. Others in the cast were: Linda Williams, Judy James, Estelene Kiger, Lois Bennett, Carlene Coleman, Lila Lee Hubbard Carol Lee, Lois Sheppier, Bobby Sheridan, Sally Robestelli, Carla Tomlin, Frank Wandell and Shirley Taylor.

Aloha Chapter 61 Eastern Star

Paul Matrons Ella McMillan and Rhoda Harnden were the hostess greeting members and visitors, Tuesday evening, November 9 at the regular meeting of Aloha Chapter 61 OES held at the Masonic Temple.

Rena Oldham, worthy matron; and Raymond Owens, worthy patron, conducted the business meeting and were assisted by the regular officers in conferring the degrees on four new candidates.

A school of instruction was held with Sallie Wood, Letha Murphy and Joe Kennedy presiding. First time visitors introduced and welcomed were Dorothy Caldwell from Fraternity Chapter 288, California and Margaret Rignell from Rose City Chapter 86, Portland.

Brief reports were given by Letha Murphy and the worthy patron on visits made to the Eastern Star Chapters at Paisley and Medford. Visiting Eastern Star members who reside in Klamath Falls but are members of out of town chapters, were in charge of decorations and refreshments for the social hour held in the banquet room.

Delicious home-baked pies and coffee were served from tables decorated with colored leaves and Thanksgiving motifs. Serving on the committee were: Grace Huls (chairman), Louise O'Brien, Pearl Teal, Jane Swartz and Pansy and Forest Burton.

H. C. TEARS FETE MRS. HOMER DIXON

Among "bon voyage" parties for Mrs. Homer Dixon, was a "special" one given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Tear at their home, 4709 Laverne.

Donna, who left recently to join her husband in Germany, received, at the Tear's October 30th party, a wide assortment of gifts from friends who came to wish her a pleasant trip — gifts beautiful, and gifts practical — some to enjoy while traveling and others to give pleasure in her new surroundings. A guest book was among them, and friends contemplate seeing it again with signatures of "friends-made-in-Germany" added to the "locals."

A cake topped with a floral basket and inscribed with the frosting sentiment, "Happy Voyage, Donna," was served with punch and coffee to, other than Donna, Hattie Probst Beth Douglas, Barbara Johnson, Jan Alexander Jeanne Overen, Shirley Palmer, Dorothy Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wirth and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wagner.

Costume Party

CHILOQUIN—Janet Hall entertained a group of her friends with the assistance of her mother, Mrs. Earl Hall, her brother, Lytle, and his friends, George Swanson and Lowell Manning. The Saturday evening event was a costume party at the Earl Hall residence.

The boys told fortunes and stories for the girls and helped provide the scary atmosphere needed for a successful Halloween party. Invited were Ginny Lynn Doak, Donna and Diane Kircher, Cherry and Micki Jo Wolf, Donna Robinson, Mary O'Neill, Sheila and Millie Riddle, Marlene Norris, Sally Ravizza, Betty Lou Holmes, Judy Adamo, Linda Cline, Elizabeth Rentz, Sally Swanson.

Wimer, reelected; first, second and third vice presidents, Mrs. Daniel Brown, Mrs. Gail Culver and Mrs. Gene A. Page, respectively; secretary, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocock, reelected; treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page, also reelected. Reappointed as chaplain, Mrs. Donald P. Veach.

The financial report for October was read by the treasurer, followed by routine standing committee reports. Committee members for the annual Christmas tree and community program to work in cooperation with the local church and school in giving holiday entertainment are Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocock, Mrs. James F. Van Worman, Mrs. Gail Culver, Mrs. Elmore Nicholson, Mrs. Daniel Brown, Mrs. Dennis Knowles, Mrs. Jack Taylor, Mrs. Gene A. Page, and Mrs. Bill Nicholson. Duties of the group will consist of soliciting funds for the Christmas treat of candy, nuts and fruit given to the children; also purchasing and sacking same. It was decided to buy a new suit for Santa Claus, whose appearance on the program is club sponsored.

Welcomed as a new member was Mrs. Jack Taylor. On Saturday evening, November 20, Cascade Crest, Order of Eastern Star, Chiloquin, will give a benefit card party in the clubhouse.

Starting in November and continuing until early spring, there will be only one club meeting each month, on the first Friday; starting December 3 when plans will be made for the annual Christmas party given by members for their husbands and families.

After the business session hostesses, Mrs. Daniel Brown and Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain served refreshments to the following: Mrs. Gene A. Page, Mrs. Dennis Knowles, Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. Jack Taylor, Mrs. Elmore Nicholson, Mrs. Bill Nicholson, Mrs. Wilbur B.
