

Quarterback Club Blasted By Coach

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Members of the Townsies, downtown booster club for the University of Arizona football team, remained silent Tuesday after head Coach Warren Woodson told them off at their weekly luncheon.

Woodson told the businessmen Monday to mind their own business and quit interfering with his team.

“You may not like it,” he said, “but you are going to hear the truth. Let’s see if you can take it.”

Title Fighters Confident

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Activists slowed down to a walk around the block Tuesday but bristling words of confidence flowed from the camps of the nation’s top lightweight fighters, champion Paddy DeMarco and the man he deposed, Jimmy Carter.

They met over the 15-round route in the vast Cow Palace, with a national television audience sitting in—outside the San Francisco arena—Wednesday night.

Carter, a 30-year-old New Yorker, broke his customary vocal habits when he observed almost casually:

“I’ll win decisively, and I may knock him out.”

Carter seldom makes a pre-fight promise of this nature. And even his manager, Willie Reichum, himself no stranger to verbal causticities, was practically astounded at Jimmy.

“All I know is that my guy is in great shape and that he is confident he will win. I feel the same way,” So spoke Ketchum.

DeMarco, 26, from Brooklyn, who surprised the boxing world in beating Carter by a decision for the title last March 5, remained at his training quarters at 3000 Union St. in nearby San Rafael.

“I came out here as the champion and I’ll leave as the champion,” he promised.

Paddy was unperturbed at the fact that Carter, who once before lost the lightweight crown and won it back, is a 2-1 betting favorite.

Johnson Steps Up Movement

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Arnold Johnson today stepped up his giant-sized task of readying a major league baseball club and stadium for the new Kansas City Athletics by season opening next April.

Heavy construction equipment moved into old Blues Stadium. Remodeling is being handled by a company organized specifically to handle this one rush-order job.

Johnson, who only last week acquired the Athletics from the Connie Mack family, yesterday named Parke Carroll, general manager of the Kansas City Blues since 1951, as a vice president and business manager of the club for three years.

“We hope to have our field manager selected by tomorrow,” Johnson said.

Speculation here is that the skipper will be Lou Boudreau, recently fired as manager of the Boston Red Sox.

Johnson would neither confirm nor deny it.

“Several men are under consideration,” he said. “No Eddie Joost isn’t out of the picture.” Joost managed the A’s at Philadelphia last season.

Richardson Trowned In Net Meet

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Winning his service every time but once, left-handed Mervyn Rose trounced Hamilton Richardson Jr., of the United States 6-4, 6-4, 7-5 Tuesday to set up an all-Australian semi-final round in the New South Wales Tennis Championships.

Rose’s one-sided victory gave Australia’s newly-named Davis Cup squad three of the four berths. Ken Rosewall earlier had advanced by whipping Lennart Bergelin of Sweden 6-4, 6-3, 6-4. Rex Hartwig made it with a 6-1, 4-6, 6-1 victory over his countryman Don Candy.

Only Lewis Hoad ace of the Aussie cup squad, was missing. He was the victim of the biggest upset of the tournament, having bowed to veteran John Bromwich, 6-4, 6-3, 7-5. The outcome of the match surprised in surprise young Candy’s victory over Tony Trabert of the United States earlier in the tournament.

Cardinals, LA Rams Continue Bitter Bout

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The pro football teams play for keeps all the time, but the Los Angeles Rams and the Chicago Cardinals have a vendetta unmatched for ferocity in the National Football League.

The feud has existed since Junior Joe Stydahar resigned as Rams coach two years ago and was succeeded by his assistant, Hampton Pool. Stydahar has not spoken to Pool since and his Cardinals beat the Rams out of a chance for the NFL title by tying them last year, 24-24.

TURNED

The Rams' 28-17 victory over the Cardinals here Sunday turned into a rough tug-of-war in which Ram Tank Younger, one of the league's leading ground gainers, suffered a wrenched knee that will keep him out of football for a year.

His teammate, Skeet Quinan, another leader among the rushers, suffered a rib injury, and Ram lineman Tom Dahms was sidelined by a thigh injury. Bill Lange, Chicago lineman, and Lamar McHan, Stydahar's quarterback, were seriously hurt, Lange having a twisted knee and McHan an injury to a neck vertebra.

Los Angeles writers called the game a disgrace. It took 55 minutes to play the first quarter. Stydahar once was penalized for coming on to the field to protest a ruling of the officials and he really blew a gasket when they held invalid Charlie Trippi's touchdown pass to Stonesifer as the first half ended.

APPEARED

There was one second to play as the teams lined up. Some Los Angeles writers said the ball appeared to be in play before it ever reached Trippi and before the gun fired. The 40,739 fans sided with Stydahar and booed the Rams and the officials in the second half.

Pool claimed that Stydahar had violated the NFL's gentlemen's agreement against fake injuries which he said the Cardinals used to gain extra plays as the first half neared a close. Told of this, Stydahar replied: "It's done all the time, by everybody."

Stydahar told Los Angeles writers that the officials "gave us a rooking."

Kiner Sold To Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians Tuesday obtained slugger Ralph Kiner from the Chicago Cubs for a "substantial" chunk of cash and one player to be named later. They said they wanted him for extra power in the outfield and as an emergency first baseman.

Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Indians, used the word "substantial" in describing the cost of the former Pittsburgh slugger to the American League champions.

For the Cubs, who obtained him from the Pirates in June 1953, Kiner batted .285 in 147 games last season and hit 22 home runs.

"That was the worst year he's had since he's been in the majors," Greenberg said. "But that is the way you get these players—you don't get them after their best year."

In nine seasons with the National League Kiner hit 351 homers, an average of 39 a season—getting 50 on two occasions. In six seasons he has had at least 100 runs batted in. He has led the National League in homers, or tied for the lead, seven times. His lifetime batting average is .281.

DOUBLE DISASTER

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — Bad news seems to come in bunches for Terry Moore, former star outfielder for the St. Louis Cardinals.

The bowling alleys owned by Terry and his brother were destroyed by fire. A few days later he was notified that his contract to manage the Philadelphia Phillies was not being renewed for next season.

Uclans Drop From AP Grid Poll Lead As Ohio State Takes Over

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Trouble with sitting one out is that some folks might get the idea you're a wallflower. That's what happened to the unbeaten Bruins of UCLA in the Associated Press college football poll this week as the unbeaten Buckeyes of Ohio State took over the No. 1 spot by a sevenpoint count.

UCLA held first place last week with an overpowering vote total, but was idle last Saturday while Ohio State, edging closer to the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl, mauled Purdue 28-6.

BASIS

The Bruins, with an 8-0 record identical to that of the Bucks, still managed to edge Ohio State in first place votes, 52-47, but on the usual basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc., OSU polled 2,010 points to UCLA's 2,003.

All of which means this Saturday's contests probably will decide the running battle between Ohio State and UCLA — each having held the No. 1 position twice this season.

Both teams complete their regular season schedules — UCLA against Southern California in a game that could give the Bruins

Woods Signed To Meet Champ

SPOKANE (AP) — Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler and Bobby Woods of Spokane will trade blows in a 10-round, non-title match here Dec. 10.

Promoter Gus Cozza said Monday the bout will be the main event of a card which also will feature a six-round exhibition matching light heavyweight champion Archie Moore and an as yet unnamed opponent.

The card will be a feature of dedication ceremonies for Spokane's new two million dollar Municipal Coliseum.
