

SOFT ORIENTAL COLORS have been used by Mr. and Mrs. John Korenian for the store front of their new business, 423 Main Street. The important new addition to Main Street business will specialize in antique Oriental rugs and antique cut glass, silver, china, and other oldtime bric-a-brac and furnishings. Korenian, a native of Armenia, is also an expert rug weaver. He has lectured on Oriental rugs in many of the major cities in the past 20 years.

Rites Held For Famed Patient

CHICAGO (AP)—Some 1,500 persons filled St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church in suburban River Forest yesterday for the funeral of Fred B. Snie Jr., 44, who spent 18½ years in iron lungs. Snie, known as the "Smiling Boiler Kid," was stricken with polio in China in 1936. He died in Florida last Friday.

The Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, former president of the University of Notre Dame, where Snie attended school, gave the funeral sermon. Snie's body was garbed in cape of a knight of the Holy Sepulchre, a vestment that went with the honor given him two years ago by Pope Pius XII.

MODELS

TOKYO (AP)—Men are invading one of the last occupations of Japanese women, fashion modeling. Eleven young men are training in the Osaka area and will make their debut soon—modeling men's clothes, of course.
