MRS. FRED (Marian) LEWIS
WILLIAM (Bill) NOVOTNY

Pomona Grange Meeting Held

Mrs. Fred (Marian) Lewis, lady assistant steward of Shasta View Grange and William (Bill) Novotny, assistant steward, Langel Valley Grange, assisted in the opening of the Pomona Grange, Saturday, November 13 at Poe Valley. H. T. (Mike) Williams presided at the meeting.

Resolutions and the state grange sessions to be held in Klamath Falls next June were discussed. Poe Valley and Lost River granges served dinner. A lecturer's hour followed with Carl Yancy, Shasta View, Mrs. Lum Lancaster, Shasta View and Mrs. Frank Hadley, Merrill presenting the program of readings and musical numbers.

Mrs. Lewis has been in grange work since 1937. She has two children in grange work, Bobby, master of Shasta View Juvenile Grange and Dorothy, elected Pomona in the same organization. She has been active in grange work, has held numerous offices and at present is a member of the state and national grange.

Novotny, resident of Oregon since 1920, farms in Langel Valley and has been a member of his home grange since 1946. He joined Pomona Grange the same year and has held numerous offices including that of master. They will both assist with plans for the state grange next spring.

Education Week Held

MERRILL — American Education Week, November 7 to 13, was observed in Merrill schools with open house held November 8, from 1 to 3 p.m. This year's theme was "Good Schools are Your Responsibility."

A large crowd attended the regular monthly meeting of Merrill PPA held after the open house, and presided over by Mrs. George Rankin, president. Mrs. Maurice Shelton suggested a food sale, as a money raising venture. Mrs. James Hammon was appointed chairman with Mrs. Maurice O'Keefe to assist.

Mrs. Clyde Fox introduced Officer Paxton of the Oregon State Police, W. O. Brickner local attorney, and Harvey Denham, school representative, in a discussion of student school patrol. Since the school does not approve of such a patrol, under the Klamath County system, it was decided to ask the city for a crosswalk in front of the high school. Mrs. Clyde Fox was appointed chairman to present the problem at the next council meeting. Assisting her are Mrs. Ralph Swisher, Mrs. Al Duncan, Mrs. Lee McKeon, Mrs. James Hodges and W. O. Brickner who volunteered to work with the committee.

Malin PTA extended an invitation to all interested to hear a lecture at the Malin school November 18, by Dr. McDougal professor of political science at SOCE. Hours are 3 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Dale West asked the Merrill group to be hosts for Malin and Henley for the showing of a film on rheumatic fever, and a talk by Dr. Don Rice Monday, November 29, in the high school gymnasium. Mrs. John Martin, Klamath Falls, is making the arrangements for this special program.

The room count for parents attendance was a tie between the two first grade rooms of Miss Perkins and Mrs. McAnulty, with the traveling planter to be left two weeks in each room.

The program for the day was a talk by Miss Perkins on her recent European tour. Colored slides were shown and many items and mementos of her trip were displayed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Panchall Hodges, Mrs. Lester Moore, Mrs. J. D. Moore and Mrs. Wendell Moore.
