

GLAZED WALNUT BARS with a cup of fragrant tea or coffee are wonderful for a morning or afternoon get-together with the gal next door or the new neighbor who has just moved in. So often it's a meeting over tea and cakes that one's best friends are made—and kept—over the years. Photo and recipe courtesy General Foods Corp., Bakers Coconut.

TEATIME CAKES

1 cup sifted flour
1/4 cup butter or margarine
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 1/2 cups firmly packed brown sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped walnuts
1/2 cup shredded coconut
2-3 cup sifted confectioner's sugar
1 to 2 tablespoons orange juice

Measure 1 cup sifted flour into mixing bowl. Cut in butter until mixture is the consistency of corn meal. Press firmly into bottom of 12x7x2 inch baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 10 minutes, or until lightly browned.

Meanwhile, mix eggs, brown sugar and vanilla until well blended. Add 2 tablespoons flour, the soda and salt. Add nuts and coconut and mix well. Spread over the baked layer. Return to oven and bake 20 minutes longer. Cool. Combine confectioner's sugar and enough orange juice to make a glaze of spreading consistency. Spread over the baked mixture. When glaze has hardened, cut into rectangles. Makes 24 bars.

TIDBIT

Wrap canned pineapple chunks in bacon and broil until the bacon is crisp. Serve hot as an appetizer.

SCHOOL DAY DESSERT
A quick and easy dessert is made with a package of vanilla pudding, topped with a spoonful of drained pineapple tidbits or crushed pineapple.
