* I THOUGHT I'D COME AND MEET YOU DAD, SO I COULD TELL YOU MY SIDE OF THE STORY.

Chiloquin

By DARLENE WOLFF
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Naomi and David, recently returned from a trip through Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Arizona and California. The most unusual part of their tour was getting caught in a flood in Roswell, New Mexico. They awoke early one morning in a tourist cabin to find their shoes floating and finally had to wade to their car. It was with some misgivings they tried to get onto the main highway for two other cars ahead of them stalled with water in the motor. Fortunately they made it, but had to change their scheduled route to escape other flood areas. They had two of their children with them, one other daughter lives here, and they visited with five other sons and daughters on the trip.

Susan Ravizza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ravizza, is attending the University of Oregon under unusual circumstances this year. She is a freshman in pre-nursing but she will not graduate from Chiloquin high school until next spring. In the past ten years three students have been graduated from the local school in three years, rather than four. They were Nina Sue Ferniman, Jean McKell and JoAnn Sismore. Then a new policy went into effect. No longer can a person graduate in less than four years. Susan last spring completed all her subject requirements, took an entrance examination, explained her status, and she is enrolled in college and looking forward to graduating from high school next spring. She received an A in mid-term chemistry and is staying at Hendricks Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Avilla and their children have moved back to the Palm Springs area for the winter months, where Avilla works. In the spring and summer months they will be at their home in Chiloquin, near her mother, Mrs. Rena Gibbons.

Mr. and Mrs. Layton Hoback and Kenneth are due back this weekend from a trip to Missouri to visit their families. It has been several years since they made the trip east. They left two weeks ago. This week they have been in Southern California visiting with other relatives.

The wedding date for Dona Clark and Jack Horton has been moved from December 26 to November 28, due to a change in the date of Jack's leave from Fort Riley, Kansas. The event will be at the Methodist Church Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

The latest newlyweds in town, Sharon and Arlen David, have moved into their home at Modoc Point after staying for several weeks with his parents near Williamson River. The couple have this week taken over the operation of Zedina's service station and store adjacent to their home.

NO "FILLER" TO SPOIL ITS DOUBLY DELICIOUS TASTE!

One glass will show you why Heidelberg sales have more than tripled in seven short years!

Nowhere else on earth can you find a combination of scenery, climate and bountiful nature to equal that of the Great Northwest.

Nowhere else, for that matter, can you find a combination equal to that offered by the Northwest's own great beer... Heidelberg! It's a combination of velvety smoothness and zesty tang — producing a brew that's smooth and easy going down, yet so thorough in quenching thirst... and with a flavor so distinctive, that it simply can't be copied.

Folks call this wonderful combination "The Velvet Tang" — and it's exclusive with Heidelberg. It's so popular that sales of Heidelberg have more than tripled in seven short years. We ask you to try just one glass of Heidelberg... see if you don't find it the finest beer you ever tasted!
