

Pastor Picks Sermon Topic

Theme of the 11 o'clock service of worship at First Methodist Church Sunday will be giving thanks to God, according to the pastor, the Rev. Lloyd Holloway.

Topic of the Rev. Holloway's sermon is "An Endless Line of Splendor."

The sacrament of Baptism will be administered and new members will be received into the church fellowship. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Lamar Jensen, will sing the Thanksgiving hymn, "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem." Miss Ruth Lobough will be organist.

On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock there will be a sack lunch fellowship followed by the study and discussion class on the City. Francis Mathews, county juvenile officer, guest speaker, will discuss city and county social problems.

Baltimore Youth Held For Arson

BALTIMORE, Md. — Alexander Partlow, 19, pleaded innocent to arson yesterday, but police said he had admitted touching off Tuesday night's million dollar blaze in South Baltimore.

The Negro youth was arraigned on the arson charge before Magistrate Simon Schoenfeld and was held without bail for grand jury action.

The fire burned out an entire block of homes and business places, injured 10 firemen and left 100 homeless. His grandmother's house was destroyed.

Sgt. Thomas Bryan said Partlow was convicted five years ago of setting fire to the same lumber yard where the Tuesday night conflagration broke out. Sentenced as a juvenile offender, he was released about a year ago.
