

Popular Song Sets Tempo For Gala Evening at Reames Country Club

called Her-nan-do's Hide-a-way!

knock three times
and whisper low,
sent by Joe,

The "strange door" was actually a strange door. The club door was removed and the "Hernando" was hung in its place for the evening of the dance.

You're in Her-nan-do's Hide-a-way!

A STRANGE DOOR . . . a furtive "knock" and a whispered "Joe sent me" . . . plus the established gratuity to the "eye" at the peephole — admitted some 100 members and guests to the dim "inside" at Reames Golf and Country Club "Hernando's Hideaway" dance.
 Spluttering candles, sawdust on the floor and shadowy figures silhouetted against the walls — were props employed to achieve the creepy atmosphere inspired by the popular song theme.
 Above, top left, the door shows closed — and below, open, while Frank Drew (who knows Joe!) — gets warm greeting from James Kerns.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drew chairmanned the event.
