

CHAPERONES for the Sacred Heart Academy Sophomore Hop, November 12, stand in front of part of the background decorations employed to represent the rock wall around the old city of Rome. From the left, Mr. and Mrs.

Lincoln Leitzke, Mr. and Mrs. James Souza, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Linehan and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boivin. Mrs. Ruth Riza, Marilou O'Connor and Jerry Pierce, also chaperones, not in picture.

Thanksgiving Theme For Soroptimists

A deeply impressive Thanksgiving service was presented during the Soroptimist Club luncheon hour Thursday, November 18 at the Winema Hotel.

The Thanksgiving thought was brought by the Rev. Dale Hewitt, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church who spoke on "Great Figures in History Who Encouraged the Offering of Thanks in Time of Crisis," enlarging on the theme of gratitude from the Biblical beginning.

Grace was sung by Mrs. Eugene (Winifred) Favell, daughter of Soroptimist president, Alice Lamm. It was written by Vern Wells, a Soroptimist from Washington and was introduced at the recent national conference of Soroptimists, held at Banff.

Mrs. Favell also sang two numbers, "Thanks be to God," and "Take Joy Home." She was accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre.

Mrs. Maude Goeller was program chairman.

Members of the Venture Club were guests at the special meeting, one of the highlights of the club year.

New rosters were distributed by Coral Sabo, roster chairman.

Tables were centered with attractive arrangements of fall fruits, pine sprays and moss.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Lamm.

Seated at the head table were Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Eugene Favell, Mrs. Cecil Drew, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Maude Goeller, Mrs. Edna Albrecht, Mrs. Lamm and the speaker, the Rev. Dale Hewitt.

VACATIONER FROM COOS BAY

Mrs. S. L. (Lois) Flak has returned to her home at Coos Bay following a two weeks vacation spent visiting relatives and friends in California and Oregon. After a visit in Redding with her sister, Mrs. C. O. (Cora) Morrow and family she drove to Keno where she visited her mother, Mrs. Charles Snowgoose and brother, Ben.

Leaving Keno, Mrs. Flak drove to Ashland and Butte Falls and visited other relatives among whom were: Mrs. Walter O'Brien and family; Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Trefren and family; Mrs. George Trefren and Mrs. Olive Smith and family.

BRIDGE PARTY

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Lester Leavitt entertained with an afternoon bridge party at her home, November 10. Decorations and refreshments were in the Thanksgiving motif.

High prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. Cecil Haley; second high, to Mrs. Harry Frazier and Mrs. Owen Peppie, traveling prize.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Bill Bechtold, Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mrs. Owen Peppie, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Bob Dehlinger, Mrs. Frank DeBel, Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mrs. Leand Harris, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Nellie Dean and Mrs. Mae Gale.

The program was provided by visiting chapters, Manzanita Chapter, a vocal solo; Chiloquin, a vocal solo; and Aloha, a reading.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by Marie Jackson, Betty Halousek, Connie Kruger and Emma Wilde.

Table decorations carried out a Thanksgiving theme. Centerpieces were wicker horns-of-plenty filled with fruit.

INVITATIONS
and
ANNOUNCEMENTS
Processed or Engraved
Three Day Delivery
SHAW STATIONERY
Company
729 Main Ph. 2-2586

A ROSE-COVERED TRELLIS framed the doorway to the "Three Coins in a Fountain" setting for the 1954 annual Sacred Heart Academy Sophomore Hop, November 12, in the parish hall. From the left, Elda Dal Brol, general chairman; David Larson, Cora Leitzke, decorations chairman; and Julie Sari.

"3 Coins in the Fountain" Theme For '54 Sacred Heart Academy Hop

Approximately 120 students of Sacred Heart Academy and their guests were transported through mood and music Friday, November 12, to the rock-walled city of Rome.

Entering through a rose covered trellis which framed the doorway, couples faced a replica of the fountain made famous by Hollywood's recent "Three Coins in the Fountain," adapted as theme for the annual Sophomore Hop held in the parish hall.

The theme song for the evening centered attention on the silver foil-covered fountain from whose center cascaded foiled sprays of water originating in tiered standards.

The traditional three coins were added to during the evening by youthful wishers. Potted palms surrounded the fountain, which motif was also used as a cover design for the dance programs.

Refreshments of cake and fruit punch were served from an attractively appointed table by members of the sophomore class, hosts to the school at this annual event which is a highlight of the fall school calendar.

General chairman of the dance was Elda Dal Brol. She was assisted by Cora Leitzke, decorations chairman; Anna Marie Eck, refreshments chairman and Charlotte Noble, program chairman. Jean Chin and Deborah Kendall did the lighting; Karen Copitzky and Elinor Anklin constructed the fountain; and Karen also designed the programs.

Morgan - McDonald orchestra furnished music for the three hour semi-formal dance.

Special guests during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boivin, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Leitzke, Mrs. Ruth Riza, Marilou O'Connor, Jerry Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Linehan, Mr. and Mrs. James Souza and the Rev. Father Patrick Meskill.

7TH BIRTHDAY

KLAMATH AGENCY — A number of friends gathered a week ago Saturday afternoon to help Alan Mesger enjoy his seventh birthday at a party given by his mother, Mrs. Robert Mesger.

Those attending were Bill Heron, Bill Swanson, Dawn and Philip Hale, Chiloquin; Bobby and Mollie Wilcox, Ann and Ricky Wheelock, Linda Longes, Greg, Ian, Eric and Hugh Wilder, Alan and his two little sisters, Peggy and Donna Lee.

Store Hours 9:30 to 5:30

Just a wee bit naughty

... but so nice!

WARNER'S Merry Widows

1330 (left) Great length! Warner's long-line bra, A to C cup, in white, $8.95. Black, $10.00.

3311 (center) Dancing with a darling — it's Warner's waltz length corsetette for that graceful silhouette. In nylon sheer and elastic marquisette. Black or white, $25.00.

1311 (right) You're so right in the middle — wearing the Merry Widow Cinch-bra — takes you in as much as two inches. In black or white. A to C cup, $12.50.

1415 Padded bra, Merry Widow styled as 1311, black or white, $15.00.

Lives there a gal who doesn't love to feel lovelier — wearing Warner's Merry Widow? The strapless that gave you such a pretty lift — Warner's styled it a dozen wonderful ways — all fitting flattery for a more bewitching you! Why not come in and be fitted by our experts today.

Foundations, Second Floor

ANNUAL SOPHOMORE HOP at Sacred Heart Academy was attended by approximately 120, including Sacred Heart Students and their guests. Shown above, dancing to Morgan-McDonald music, are (l to r) Betty Bousquet, James Holland; Colleen Linehan, Richard Wickline; Maureen Novak, Robert Coffman; Mary Kay Eaton, Bob Wilmont; and Bea Walsh and Ronald Cramblet.

LINED UP at the refreshment table, starting from the left side, Jimmy Tucker, Darlene Brophy, Karen Copitzky, Anna Marie Eck, refreshments chairman; and John Reed. Others, John Vandenberg (back to camera); Robert Coffman (light suit); Richard Humphrey, Jack Dillavou and Joan Campbell.

Friendship and Past Matron-Patron Night Observed by Prosperity 160

MALIN — One of the most outstanding meetings of the year held by Prosperity Chapter 160, Order of the Eastern Star, was the meeting Thursday evening, November 11, in the Malin Masonic Hall, when Friendship and past matrons' and past patrons' nights were observed.

Host and hostess, with their officers were worthy matron and worthy patron, Doris and Jess Smith.

Proving the true gesture of friendship between chapters, all worthy matrons of local chapters were present. They were introduced and seated in the East as follows: Rosalie Hoback, worthy matron of Cascade Crest Chapter, Chiloquin; Rena Oldham, worthy matron, Aloha Chapter, Klamath Falls; Lois Gueck, worthy matron, Manzanita, Klamath Falls; and Lois Thomas, worthy matron of Tulilake Chapter, Tulilake.

Other distinguished guests escorted to the East were: Letha Murphy, member of the Endowment Fund Committee, Grand Chapter of Oregon; Helen McCornack, Grand Representative to New York; Lorraine Reinmiller, deputy grand matron of California; Everett Biehn, worthy patron, Manzanita Chapter; and Alva Oldham, deputy to the Grand Master of Oregon Masonic Grand Lodge.

DANCE Every Sat. Nite
From 10 till 2 — Beginning Nov. 20th
MALIN Broadway Hall
Music by The Basin Hillbillies
Sponsored by the
Loyal Order of Moose
Adm. $1.00 person, tax incl.