Lawson L. Martin Weds Merced Girl In Merced Catholic Church Nuptials

Lawson L. Martin, former Klamath man, son of Mrs. Rose Martin, 4779 South Sixth Street, and Mr. Pearl Martin, Prineville, claimed as his bride, Shirley Ann Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Sullivan, Merced. Vows were exchanged in the Merced Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church. The bride, escorted to the flower banked altar by her father, wore a white satin and marquisette gown, with fitted bodice and a full skirt which featured a long train. She carried a floral muff of stephanotis centered with a white orchid, and a pearl crown held her lace-trimmed veil. A mauve net over taffeta frock was worn by Mrs. William Descalso, matron of honor, Edith Pregno, bridesmaid, wore a light blue dress of the same pattern and material as Mrs. Descalso's. Both carried muffs of pink carnations. Bill Deasy served as best man; James Sullivan was usher and attendant; and Edro Bonotto ushered. Bill Fisher, organist, accompanied vocal soloist, Joyce Jundt. Mrs. Sullivan chose a black faille dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding; and the senior Mrs. Martin wore a blue silk shantung dress with pink accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations. During the reception at the Women's Clubhouse Mrs. Ronald Beland and Mrs. Max Gore cut the cake; Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Leo Hay served punch; and Fay Johnston presided at the guest book. The new Mrs. Martin is a graduate of Merced High School. Her husband, a graduate of KUHS, is presently enrolled at Fresno State College. They will be at home in Fresno while he attends school. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Robert Perkins, Klamath Falls; Leona Martin, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zeller and Tom Manahat, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hay, El Cerrito; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kassabaum, Modesto; and Mrs. Jack Nicol, Astel, Oregon.

SHOWER FOR BRIDEGROOM

MALIN—A unique bridegroom's shower was given as a surprise to Ted Gordon, Malin, who is to be married November 21 to Florence Ann Perkins of Klamath Falls.
