

Some Very Good Reasons For Thanksgiving

BRAND NEW BROWNIES ENTERTAINED their mothers Tuesday, November 9, following an investiture ceremony in which they received their troop number and became an official Brownie troop. The ceremony and party were held at the home of Mrs. Ed Jolly, 2046 Worden, troop leader. Assistant troop leader is Mrs. Clancy Canine. Troop members are (back row, from left) Joyce Jolly, Patty Matthews, Virginia West, Linda Lou Smith, Patsy Uglum, Sandra Jorde, (first row, same order) Pamela Wilson, Evelyn Soto, Marcia Canine, Janet Jolly. All are members of Troop 55, second graders at Fairview school.

SPORT SHIRTS were donned by Steven Dale, two-and-one-half; and his brother, Dan Norman, five, when they posed for the above picture. They are handsome sons of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Weaver, 3737 Bisbee.

JACK COOLEY, is handsome son of Mrs. Marianne Cooley and the late George E. Cooley, 2422 Darrow. He was eleven, October 26; and is in the sixth grade at Mills. A Halloween party at home in observance of the birthday anniversary was shared with a number of friends and relatives. His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Carter, 821 Mitchell; and his grandmother took the picture. —Photo by Mary Carter

DONNIE KELLY AND RONNIE DEE . . . in that order, are husky handful of twins; sons of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Foster, 231 Rogers. Two birthday anniversaries will be celebrated December 29, when they will be one year old. Their maternal grandfather, Iret Warren, lives in Redding. —Photo by Guderian
