Annual Union Service Slated

The Klamath Ministerial Association will sponsor an annual union Thanksgiving service again this year, according to an announcement by the Rev. Wesley Crist.

The service will be conducted in First Presbyterian Church, 601 Pine, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Music will be provided by First Presbyterian Church Choir.

Speaker of the evening is the Rev. Edward Lander, pastor of Church of the Brethren.

The program has been arranged by the Rev. Dale Hewitt, First Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Lloyd Holloway, First Methodist Church; and the Rev. Wesley Crist, First Church of the Nazarene, chairman of the ministerial association's special services committee.

An offering will be taken for contribution to the SOS program in which the U. S. government contributes $20 worth of surplus food supplies for every dollar contributed by churches to feed the needy people of Korea.

The public is welcome to attend the service.
