

CHEERFUL LIGHTS SHINING through a frost and snow rimmed window are a warm sight during the winter months in Klamath Falls.

FINDING THE ENTRANCE to the administration building up at Crater Lake was sort of a chore this spring. You had to look for the tunnel cut into the big snowbank before you could get to the front door.

ATTRACTION
Italian children set out their shoes on the night of Jan. 5 to attract La Befana, an old woman who rides a broomstick. She brings ashes for the bad, gifts for the good.

GOLF CLUBS
For sportsmen, there are new wooden golf club heads impregnated with phenolic resins. This means that protective sole plates are no longer needed — nor the screws which tend to weaken the heads.

SPICES IN NICE bottles with hand-lettered labels make a charming gift from one family to another. Bottles can be packed in a basket or sent with a home-made shelf.

ESSENTIALS for any family are these simple tools—an unbreakable hammer, a screw-driver and a hand drill.

TREE ORNAMENTS are child's play with sequins, pine, tape and plastics sold in pre-cut holiday shapes.

Fire Hazards Warning Told

Take the mountains of gift wrappings right out of the house; they are a great fire hazard. A time exposure will get that shot of the tree, but don't put it off until the lovely packages are just wads of paper.

America's official Christmas tree is located in General Grant National Park, California. It is 267 feet high.

A few drops of food coloring in the iced-water pitcher is tasteless, but gives your holiday table an extra Christmas look. Make one pitcher of red, one of green water.

ORNAMENTS
Some families gather a collection of expensive tree ornaments to be passed down from generation to generation by splurging on one each year.

BOXING DAY

mas is called Boxing Day and is giving of Christmas boxes of gifts celebrated as a legal holiday. The on that day and leaving Dec. 25 custom derives its name from the for family festivities.
