Delicious Recipes Add To Holiday Season Party Fun

Afternoon entertaining during the holiday season is fun because of the variety of parties you can have—tea, coffee, punch parties, open houses. Here are delicious new recipes for all these kinds of party-giving to give you ideas.

For a coffee or tea, serve little sandwiches and fruitcake, made

5 tablespoons tea. Brew five minutes. Stir and strain. Add 1 cup sugar and stir until dissolved. Cool at room temperature. Combine 1 cup lemon juice, 2 cups orange juice, 1 cup pineapple juice, 2 cups cranberry juice. Add to tea. Chill just before serving, pour punch over large piece of ice in punch bowl. Add 1 quart ginger ale. Garnish with 1/2 lemon, sliced, 1 lime, sliced, and maraschino cherries.

CHAMPAGNE PUNCH
Combine 2 quarts imported champagne, 2 ponies maraschino, 4 ponies cognac, 2 ponies curacao, 2 ponies yellow chartreuse, juice of 4 lemons and 2 quarts soda water. Add sugar to taste. Decorate with fruit, pour into punch bowl over ice. Makes about 30 servings.

For munching at a cocktail or punch party, there are few things so easy on the hostess' time and so pleasing to guests as dips.

TUNA HOLIDAY DIP
Combine one 6-ounce can tomato paste, 1 cup sour cream, 1 teaspoon grated onion, 1/2 teaspoon oregano, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley. Mix until blended. Break one 7-ounce can drained solid-pack tuna into large pieces with a fork and add to tomato mix-with Dromedary mix. To vary the fruitcake, try a dip. Cut the cake in tiny squares, insert toothpicks and serve it with the dip.

QUICK SHERRY SAUCE
Prepare one package vanilla pudding according to directions, using twice the usual amount of milk. Allow to cool, covered. Add 1 teaspoon sherry or rum, flavoring.

You can have a fine punch party whether you serve liquor or not. Here is the Tea Council's fruit punch. It makes about 5 quarts or 32 4-ounce servings.

OPEN HOUSE FRUIT PUNCH
Pour 2 quarts boiling water over

Cranberries Add To Xmas Dinner

Because of their lovely redness and good flavor, cranberries are a tasty complement to Christmas meals. As a sauce or jelly with the turkey, they're traditional. But there are other uses of this delicacy which is so plentiful at Yuletide.

With orange marmalade, candied cranberries are the base of a homemade ice cream. With lemon and apricot, they make a fine relish for freezing.

A crisp-crust cranberry-apple pie is a novel dessert, one not quite so rich as plum pudding, but with all the air of tradition. Combine Cape Cod cranberries and apples in a syrup and cook five minutes. Put in unbaked pie shell, top with lattice crust. Bake about 30-35 minutes.

VISITING firemen and friends can be invited to holiday afternoon coffee party. It's the fruit cake that makes it.

ture. Mix well. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Garnish with additional tuna, if desired. This makes 2 cups dip. Serve it in a bowl surrounded with potato chips or crackers.

Make a Christmas candle by melting stubs of old ones and pouring into a hole cut in an old rubber ball. Cut ball off with a razor, scrape the bottom flat. Don't forget to put a wick down the middle when the wax is soft.

Glamorous Womens' Gifts Will Fit Budget

The route to the heart of a man may detour around 'through his stomach, but the path to the heart of his lady is always in open view. On Christmas Day and every day, she's sure to fall every time for lovely—and practical—things to wear.

The woman who can't be thrilled by glamorous gifts of clothing probably doesn't exist. And now, more than ever before, the thrill is easier to give—for there's glamor to fit every budget.

Handsome, luxurious garments, such as petticoats, nightgowns, pignoirs, pajamas, blouses and skirts, range the scale of prices from five-figure numbers to one or two dollars. What once only queens and nobles could afford now is available to all.

If the lady on your list likes dress-up occasions, she'll appreciate a glamorous blouse. This year's new formal blouse styles feature dozens of opulent fabrics. Avisco rayon mat jersey, the popular fabric which has long been a favorite in sophisticated separates costumes, is one of the newer fashion leaders. With its stark simplicity and richness of texture, the mat jersey blouse makes an elegant foil for sparkling jewelry and colorful scarves.

Color ranges are extensive. Often, one blouse style can be had in as many as 14 different colors.

Most popular hues for winter are the beige and sand tones, coffee, brown and black.

Another gift favorite is sleep-femininity.

While gowns are favored for grownups, cute styles like short bloomer pajamas are right for teen-agers. A newly popular adult style is the "waist-length" gown in printed challis, with matching pignoir ensemble.

The list of other favorites—sweaters, slacks, hats, suits, stockings, raincoats, wetsuits and so forth—is too long to well describe, and long enough to fit any gift-giving problem. But before you choose, a word of advice:

In buying women's clothing, stay away from the type of item that requires a definite measurement, unless you know the measurement exactly. If you don't and can't find out, many stores have gift certificates which enable the lady to choose for herself, after you've paid for the item.

In the field of accessory items, the list is headed, as usual, by the always-needed handbag. The currently popular tote bag style can be found in all types of leather, from cowhide to suede to kid, and in all popular colors.

The choice of belts is equally wide. You'll see them in the new softened calf leather, so supple that it is draped, pleated and shirred for the cummerbund look. The wrapped look is also developed in smooth leather belts that give the effect of a wide midriff with a curved shaping.

The idea that a gift of gloves is practical but unimaginative doesn't hold true this Christmas. A myriad of colors and textures from the finest soft doekings and place kid leathers to pigskins and capeskin are available in gloves for every occasion. And the styling is true-high-fashion.
