

DATE OF THIS PICTURE is not known but the old Model T panel truck, lettered "Klamath County Free Library" was driven by the late Mary McComb, county librarian who pioneered the free distribution of library books to schools and to outlying districts. Miss McComb stands behind the first "bookmobile" in front of the first Henley School. A modern truck now carries books to every part of Klamath County on a loan basis.

BONANZA

By CORA LEAVITT

Michelle and Pamela Peppie spent the weekend with their grandparents the Owen Peppies while their parents, the Dick Peppies, Klamath Falls, went to the football game at Corvallis. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ritter, Dairy, went with them. They met Mr. and Mrs. Danny Givan, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Peppie, Salem at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wakefield, Patty and John are leaving Wednesday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with relatives and friends. They will return Sunday. John Brown will deliver gas and oil for Jim while he is away.

Betty Derry and Ralph Womack were married at Reno, November 6. Betty is the daughter of the Dick Derry's, Malin, and Ralph is the son of O. O. Womack, Klamath Falls. Congratulations and best wishes to the young couple.

Mrs. Florence Horn and Jack left November 21 for San Mateo to spend a week with her son, Clinton Corpening and family. Little Mark Corpening is now six months old.

Basketball starts December 3 and 4 with a Jamboree at Henley. The first home game will be December 14, with the Henley Hornets.
