Californian Sues Nixon

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Vice President Richard Nixon faces a $150,000 suit, charged with assault, battery and false imprisonment by a man ejected from a political rally last month after a heckler shouted, "tell us a dog story, Dick."

The heckler's remark came as Nixon was finishing a speech at a San Mateo, Calif., rally Oct. 29. Guards began escorting James Heavey, 33, of San Francisco, from the auditorium, but when the speech ended, Nixon called him back and lectured him on freedom of speech.

Heavey's suit charges he was assaulted, battered and falsely detained by 12 men under Nixon's supervision, suffering "grave and severe humiliation, embarrassment and shame, including shock and injury to his nerves and nervous system."

The complaint describes the man who seized Heavey as "agents, servants and employees" of the vice president who "were at all times acting within the course and scope of their employment and under the direction and control and supervision" of Nixon.

The suit asks $50,000 general and $25,000 punitive damages for assault, and the same amounts for being "restrained without his consent."

Korean Fire Under Control

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—Investigators set out today to find the cause of a fire that razed for seven hours through the Army's biggest quartermaster depot in Korea, gutted three-fourths of the sprawling installation and burned 20 homes.

There was no immediate estimate of damage from the fire, which Army sources called the most disastrous military blaze in Pusan's history.

The fire, now well under control, broke out last night in the 55th Quartermaster Depot.

The Army said a preliminary check showed 12 to 15 large warehouses, a barracks, mess hall, numerous smaller buildings and many stacks of equipment stored outside of buildings were destroyed with the coming of the fire.

The headquarters and headquarters company for the base were evacuated. Many Korean families also fled with their household belongings.

The roaring blaze leaped across intervening streets and consumed 23 Korean homes.

Many other houses thrown up by refugees in the area were leveled by army bulldozers, clearing a fire path around the area.

Remington, like Hiss, was convicted of perjury in connection with congressional queries about communism. Remington's funeral will be held Saturday at Ridgeview, N.J., not far from New York where Hiss lives. Hiss was silent when asked if he would attend the funeral.

Hiss and Remington never were linked in the same Washington Communist associations.

REFUSES TO ANSWER - Beyond the brief statement asserting his innocence, Hiss tended off further questioning by newsmen, rushed to his car and drove away.

It was assumed that Hiss was heading for his apartment in New York City.

As a convict on parole, Hiss must report monthly to a federal officer in New York for the next year and a half on how he's living, how he's working and who are his friends.

After the parole period Hiss will be on his own.

However, Hiss won't be able to retire so soon from public gaze even if he has that intention. Several congressional committees have announced recently they'd like to question Hiss more about his government associations, before, during and after World War II.

Hiss, before he quit a high post in the State Department under Secretary Dean Acheson, was a close confidant of Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman and was secretary of the 1945 San Francisco conference that founded the United Nations.

McGarrahan is noted for his impersonations of great Bible characters and his one-man dramatizations have been presented in numerous cities throughout the United States. His portrayals include the stories of David and Goliath, Samson and Delilah, Noah and the Ark, Jabez, Elijah and others, all done with realistic but simple stage props.

The children's evangelist believes "faith in Christ and the miracles of the Bible" are the answer for juvenile delinquency and international misunderstanding, and that "the anecdote for the devastation of morbid comic books is the story of the Bible made to live with dynamic action and drama."

Police Report Two Accidents

Two men and a boy were hospitalized Friday night in two separate automobile accidents, police authorities report.

Excessive speed was blamed for a one car accident on Highway 39 at Merrill about 10 p.m. Friday, Oregon State Police reported.

Taken to the Klamath Valley Hospital by Kaler's ambulance were the driver Herman Blackshear, 334 Crosby, and a passenger James T. Ford, Blackshear's wife Tessie, also in the car, was not hurt.

The injured men were treated for head and neck lacerations, broken ribs and neck injuries. Their condition is not considered serious, according to the attending physician.

State police reported the Blackshear car traveling west through Merrill failed to negotiate the curve at the west city limits and went into the ditch turning end over end twice.

In another accident which occurred earlier in the evening 9-year-old Harry Castro, 455 Division, reportedly fell from a car operated by Jack Minkler, 2137 Blehm. Details of the accident were not available at police headquarters. The lad was still in the hospital today where he is recovering from cuts and bruises.

IT'S EASY TO MAKE MONEY AT DUGAN & MEST, says J. L. Mitchell of 621 Mitchell, as Jim Douglas, Doug Knudson and Bob Mest scratch their heads. Mitchell bought a used pickup from Dugan & Mest Chevrolet and before he had a chance to drive it, another customer walked on the lot—paid Mitchell a neat $30 profit—and drove it off. Dugan and Mest are still trying to determine Mitchell's technique. Adv.
