

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gordon

MRS. FREDERICK THEODORE (TED) GORDON . . . who was Flo Ann Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliott Perkins, 1527 Pacific Terrace. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Gordon, Malin; and First Presbyterian Church was overflowing with friends and relatives of the well known Basin families. The double-ring marriage service was read by the Rev. Dale E. Hewitt at 2 p.m., November 21. After a honeymoon in the Bay Area, the couple is now at home in Merrill, where Flo Ann teaches elementary school; and Ted is associated with his father in farming. — Photo by Guderian

Lumbermen's Wives Entertain For Mrs. Nixon

OREGON WOMEN had a leading part in the program of activities for wives of directors in the National Lumber Manufacturers Association at the annual meeting in Washington, D.C., November 8-10. Mrs. Richard M. Nixon, center, was honor guest at a tea at the Washington Club. With her, from the left, Mrs. Judd Greenman, Vernonia; Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney, Klamath Falls; Mrs. James Bemis, Prescott, Arkansas; and Mrs. Leo V. Bodine, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Macartney, wife of the immediate past chairman of NLMA board of directors, was in the receiving line; and Mrs. Greenman, wife of the new association president, poured. — Photo by Rottler, Falls Church, Va.

Leaving For New Home in Salem

MRS. LEWIS A. STANLEY . . . whose husband was recently appointed to the office of state engineer, will join him in Salem as soon as she finishes packing and completes arrangements for the rental or sale of their home, 5431 South Sixth Street. They have lived here for a year; and Mrs. Stanley expressed regret at leaving Klamath Falls friends, hunting and the climate. She and her husband found the surroundings similar to that around Anchorage, Alaska, where they also lived. As the wife of a civil engineer, Mrs. Stanley has made many moves; one of them to and from Afghanistan, where they lived for two years while he was field engineer for Merriam-Knudsen Company. No stranger to Salem, Mrs. Stanley, although reluctant to leave here, is looking forward to renewing old friendships in Salem. — Photo by Kettler

Santa Claus Helpers at St. Pauls

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL WOMAN'S AUXILIARY ANNUAL BAZAAR is slated for December 4, in the parish hall, which will be transformed into "The Square of Little Shops" a festive place of enchantment decked with greens and Christmas garlands; and stacked with heaps of tempting gift items. This year's bazaar committee members are Mrs. C. L. Jimerson, above, left; Mrs. F. R. Olds, right; and Mrs. John Schubert, not in picture. (For further details see inside page). — Photo by Kettler
