REFLECTIONS FROM

NEW SON — born Wed Nov 24 to the Bob Erlandsons in Santa Barbara — name — John McVey — weight about 4 pounds — Sig. 6 — and Nick. 4 — are older brothers — and two sets of g-parnts live here in KP — Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McVey, Lakeshore Drive — and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erlandson, 319 N. 9th.

SOME WENT SOUTH AND SOME WENT NORTH — whichever way — it was still homecoming — among those spotted at Corvallis for OSC homecoming last Saturday were the Bob Ellingsons — Roy Whillaghen, Bob Kents, George Brosterhouses, Tom Walters Jr., Bill Wales Jr., Earl Kent with Charles Gupill — and Sally Kent — said she and spouse Bob saw ex-KFers Buck Hammer and Frank Ramsey — Also saw Kenneth and Jean Moore — missed the Bob Thompsons et al — Hermie and Jean Darley — down from Station — hope I didn't leave out too many — SOUTHBOWN contingent included the J. Martin Adams, the J. Frank Adams and the Chas. V. Rugs — Stanford and Cal rooters.

EXCITED? — WHO'S excited? — not even slightly nervous (he said) — while dressing for wedding last Sunday to Flo Ann Perkins — his next words were "Where's the marriage license? — I can't find the marriage license" — by this time he was frantically pawing and babbling like a normal bridegroom — someone else found it — (where it wasn't really lost) — and things were calm again — "no nerves — SEE?" — and Ted decided to call his bride-to-be — at her parents home on Pacific Terrace — with great aplomb approached the telephone and dialed — "Yeh you guessed it! — his own MALIN phone number!"

CHEMUL CIVIC CLUB OBSERVES THIRD BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

CHEMUL — The Chemul Civic Club held its third birthday party in the club house and celebrated with a card party. The party was arranged by Mrs. Myrtle Haash who, last year had suggested

VFW Auxiliary To Post 4056

MERRILL — Margaret Loper, the president, conducted the regular meeting of VFW Auxiliary to Post 4056, November 17, at the recreation hall. The auxiliary served the annual appreciation supper hosted each year by the Merrill Lions Club at the close of the potato festival. Plans for the Christmas party for all auxiliary members and their families will be completed at the next meeting in December.

District seclior vice president, Mabel Winkelman and Ruby Moore, both from Pelican Post in Klamath Falls, were visitors at the meeting.

Refreshments were served after the meeting to the following: Ida May Fleck, Nellie Peck, Rosemary Crawford, Marjorie Waldrup, Bessie Duncan, Marion Knox, Myrtle Rippey, Mary Lou Swisher, Frances Brandenberg, Lonnie Ratliff, Joan Trotman, Barbara McKoen, Pat Duncan, Grace Walker and the two visitors.

The Club Christmas party will be held December 1 at the home of Mrs. Grady Gooch at Beaver Marsh, with Mrs. John Herman co-hostess. Each member is to bring a gift for the tree.

Mrs. George Bauer presided at the guest book — signed by guests as they entered the room.

"MOM... I'M HOME" — and Claire Ellis also earlier — knew she had a surprise visit from her favorite dir — Linda Dillstrom from Mountain Home, Idaho — favorite son Ken — too was home from SOC — to share turkey with parents Ott and Claire; sister, Linda — aunt Frances Alderice and guest Charlie Riley.

THE M. J. SLAYMER family is finally living in the same town — and settled in time for Thanksgiving — After 20 months of negotiation, they've sold their Medford home and Maurie was joined by "Freddie" and their two sons Curry and Neil to live under the same roof again in KP home, 1881 Manzanita — the S. scios are in the 6th and 3rd grades respectively at Roosevelt School — Maurie is manager of Klamath Feed Co.

HERE FOR Thanksgiving holidays to visit his sister and parents are Capt. Marvin Rowland and his wife — dividing their time between the James Griggs' — 2354 Ward St and the L. W. Rowlands at 2946 Kane — Capt. Rowland, former KP resident — is presently stationed at Bossier Air Force Base near Shreveport, La.

ONLY TWO from Oregon at the annual Potentate's Ball in Governor's Hall Sacramento, Nov. 3 — were Gladys and Joe Halousek from Malin — the plush event was in honor of illustrious Potentate and Mrs. A. J. Affleck of Ben All Temple — Order of the Shrine.

SHRINE CLUB (Klamath Falls) — annual dinner dance, Saturday, December 4, will be as usual, formal for Shriners and their dining and dancing partners — with cocktails at 7 p.m., and dinner at 8 — dancing to music by Ben All Dance Band.

collecting money in a birthday box. It was opened at the November meeting by the treasurer, and the money spent on the party.

The tables were arranged around the room, and for the first time the new chairs were used. The club now has 36 folding chairs.

Special prizes were won by Mrs. Hazel Faris, Mrs. Pat McBride and Mrs. Irene Cole. High card score was won by Mrs. Teresa Darnell; low by June Masten. After cards, refreshments were served by the hostesses, who were fully set with two silver services, lace cloth and center piece of crystal and mums in yellow to rust shades, with rust candles in crystal holders. Napkins with autumn leaves matched the theme; and the club's birthday cake with its three candles was a beautiful three tiered cake made by Irene Cole. Cake, cranberry pie cream with vanilla, coffee and tea completed the refreshments.

Those attending were Mrs. Carl Beckes, Mrs. William Mott, Mrs. Richard Jessup, Mrs. Cap Jessup, Mrs. Grady Gooch, Mrs. Orville Faris, Mrs. Al Ramsey, Mrs. Don Cole, Mrs. Don McBride, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. Ray Darnell, Mrs. Richard Clauson, Mrs. John Herman, Mrs. C. A MOCK WEDDING was the hilarious highlight of Cascade Crest Chapter of OES, Friendship Night program. All of the wedding principals were male, except Mrs. A. A. (Helen) Montgomery, above center, who was a vocal sensation when she sang as her pre-ceremony solo, "Just Before the Battle, Mother." With her, Layton Hoback, left; and Dwight Kircher, right, bridesmaids. (See Story)

Cascade Crest Chapter OES Friendship Night Program

CHILOQUIN — "Keys to Friendship" Night held last Wednesday night by Cascade Crest Chapter of OES. Highlight of the program given for members and guests was a mock wedding, "A Storm of Matrimonial Weather", with an all male cast except for the soloist, Helen Montgomery, Klamath Falls, who had the audience in gales of laughter with her rendition of "Just Before the Battle, Mother."

The Rev. Harley Zeller with a falsetto voice wearing a bridal gown furnished by Dorothy O'Neill, was the bride, with Glenn O'Neill, Modoc Point, the reluctant bridegroom. Others in the cast were Gail Ridenour, preacher; Bob Mathis, bride's father; Gus Page, bride's mother; Elbert Brower, bride's aunt; Jim Huff, bride's uncle; Gene Page, the father; Bill Wampler, the best man; flower girls, Layton Hoback and Dwight Kircher; ring bearer, Lawrence Myers; and Mrs. Athel Roser acted as organist.

Other numbers on the program were two dances by Rosalie Hoback and Donas Ridenour, a solo, "My Friend," by Ruphane Maner, accompanied by Mrs. Roser, who also played an organ prelude.

At the stated meeting which preceded the program, Rosalie Hoback, worthy matron and Dwight Kircher, worthy patron, presided. Leitha Murphy, grand committee member of the endowment fund; Rena Oldham, worthy matron; Aloha Chapter; Doris Smith, worthy matron; Jess Smith, worthy patron of Prosperity Chapter; and Lois Gueck, worthy matron of Manzanita Chapter, were seated in the East.

In observance of friendship night, "Keys to Friendship" was used as theme, and guests were presented with small gold keys. Thelma Fink, a member of Manzanita Chapter, and Paul Jones, of Aloha Chapter, held the lucky keys and were escorted to the East.

Following the program, which was announced by Elizabeth Zeller, refreshments were served the large crowd attending.

Combine left-over turkey with chunks of ripe olives in a simple cheese sauce and roll up, jelly-roll fashion in large buckwheat pancakes. Top with more of the cheese sauce. Garnish with whole ripe olives and broiled canned cling peach halves. Make the pancakes thin. They are especially good made with your sour dough starter.

A gift was sent to Tommy Lindsay who is in bed recovering from injuries received several weeks ago. Pinocle was played after the meeting, prizes going to Margaret Burnett, Cora Leavitt and Dale Smeicer. Mrs. Jack Weimer served pumpkin pie and coffee after the card session. Next meeting December 16, will be the Christmas party, place to be announced later.
