Court Klamath No. 1295 CDA

Over 70 women of Court Klamath No. 1295, Catholic Daughters of America motored to Merrill Monday evening, where a group of members from Merrill, Malin and Tulelake entertained at the regular monthly social meeting.

Bridge and canasta were played, followed by a fashion show of costumes worn at the turn of the century. These costumes were shown by courtesy of owner Mrs. Bert Thomas and were modeled by twelve of the younger matrons of the court.

Mrs. Don Ratliff was chairman of what proved to be a most enjoyable social evening.

GS LEADERS "COFFEE" MEETING

Leaders for Girl Scouts of the Mills Addition area met at the home of Mrs. Joe Russell, 2328 Wentland, for a "coffee" on November 13. This was one of a series of neighborhood planning meetings being held in the various districts.

Plans for the skating party to be held during Girl Scout Week in March and for the Dads-Daughter banquet in February were discussed, and each troop leader reported on her troop's activities.

At the meeting, other than the hosts, Mrs. Russell, were Mrs. Earl Erickson, Mrs. Ray Leobeter, Mrs. Ted Hamaker, Mrs. Claude Fetters, Mrs. Arthur Leaming, Mrs. William Ackerman, Mrs. William Pierson, Mrs. W. H. Baustien, Mrs. E. A. Shulmire, Mrs. Fred Goeller, training chairman and Mrs. Art Moore, organization chairman.

Aloha Chapter No. 61, OES

On Tuesday evening, November 23, members and friends of Aloha Chapter No. 61 OES, met at the Masonic Temple for a stated meeting and advance night. Rena Oldham, worthy matron; and Raymond Owens, worthy patron; presided in the east. Ella McMillan and Norma Ursling welcomed the guests upon arrival.

Lovely bouquets of autumn flowers arranged in tall white baskets decorated the chapter room. A bouquet of American Beauty roses on the piano was an artistic color note.

Edna Jones, associate matron; and Jack Rhodes, associate patron; advanced to the east and presided as worthy matron and worthy patron during the ceremony of initiation. Ella McMillan presided as associate matron; Clara Williams as associate patron; and Alpha Phelps as associate conductress.

Visitors introduced were Myrtle Dexter of Cannon City Chapter No. 56, Cannon City; Fannie Edens, Evangeline Chapter No. 9, Nevada City; Ray Grans, Gladys and Ben Cornell of Mantzonia No. 172.

Delicious pumpkin pie and coffee were served from tables decorated with Thanksgiving motifs and small bouquets of flowers.

Serving on the refreshment committee were: Myrtle and Howard Merks (co-chairmen); Mabel and Ike Morkey; and Mildred and Harold Peppers.

will be presented by Mrs. Violette Moore and the Altamont School chorus.

Members are asked to bring gifts for the Christmas box for the Schrine Hospital. President Peggy Chilcote asks that they be gift wrapped and marked whether for boy or girl, age group, and value. Mary Barkdoll is chairman of the meeting; Lillian Hillis, entertainment chairman. Cards will be played after the meeting.

Amaranth

With Ruth Rodenberger, royal matron, and Thomas J. O'Harra, royal patron, presiding, the ritualistic work of the Order of the Amaranth was beautifully exemplified at a stated meeting of Friendship Court No. 11, Wednesday evening, November 17, at which time John Coulson became a member of the order.

A potluck dinner preceded the meeting with Mary Barkdoll, Mary Ellen Gaster, Ollie Wilson, Zella Blankenship and Ruth O'Harra in charge. The Thanksgiving motif was carried out in table decorations under the direction of Leona Angel.

Bernice Finch, past grand royal matron; and Jack Schulze, past grand royal patron; were escorted to the throne and extended honors due them. Also escorted were Ellen Stover, grand assistant lecturer, and the following past royal matrons, Mary Ellen Gaster, Ora Gienger and Blanche Schulze.

Gifts were presented those past officers who were not present at the October meeting when past matrons and patrons were honored.

Zella Blankenship, sewing chairman, gave a report on what was accomplished at the two meetings held at the temple when members gathered and sewed for children in the Shrine's Hospital.

Glowing reports of the trip to Douglas Court No. 18, Roseburg, were given by those who attended the Friendship Night there on November 5. Ruth Rodenberger, A. A. Rodenberger, Mary Ellen Gaster, Ruth O'Harra and Marie Simpson were those in attendance.

Catherine Wright, associate matron and ways and means chairman, gave a report on the successful rummage sale held earlier in the month.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room following the adjournment of the meeting.

The next meeting is slated for December 15, at which time there will be the annual Christmas party and gift exchange.

GLAMOUR SALAD

Spread ripe pearls with softened cream cheese. Roll in shredded coconut which has been tinted with vegetable coloring (if you wish) and serve with mayonnaise.

EULENE BUCK RECENT BRIDE

CHILOQUIN — A recent wedding of interest to the Basin was that two weeks ago of a former Chilquin girl, Eulene Buck, who was married at Pleasant Home, Oregon to Roger Glenn Meisner, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Meisner, Tualatin. Eulene, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Leonard Buck, Gresham, was married by her father at the Methodist Church before 250 family friends and relatives.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white tulle and lace made on train. Her aluminum veil was held in place by a Juliet cap. She carried a white prayer book with a cross of pale yellow rosebuds.

Nearly all members of the bridal party were from the Basin Area. Mrs. Forrest Freid, Chilquin, was matron of honor for her sister, and wore a gown of forest green tulle. She carried a nosegay of bronze and gold chrysanthemums centered with a lighted taper. Bridesmaid was the bride's other sister, Mrs. LeRoy Gienger Jr., Sprague River, who wore an antique gold frock. Karlene Miller, Tualatin, was junior bridesmaid in a rust-colored gown.

The bride's niece, Candace Freid, was ring bearer and her sister, Lynda Freid, flower girl. Their floor length frocks were patterned as those of the adult attendants.

Robert Mullen was best man for his school friend and usher were brothers-in-law of the bride, Forrest Freid, Chilquin; and LeRoy Gienger Jr., Sprague River.

Gifts were displayed in an annex to the church parlors where the reception was held. The parlor, as well as the church, were decorated with candelabra and yellow roses, and the yellow roses were also used to surround the bridal confectio. Five school friends from Clatskanie and Tualatin served, wearing identical dresses in the bridal party colors. The young couple will live in Tualatin.

Czech Club

MALIN — Mrs. Frank Byer Sr. entertained members of the Czech Ladies Club on Thursday afternoon, November 18 at her ranch home west of Malin.

Guests enjoyed playing a game during the afternoon, with high prize awarded to Mrs. Joe Smidl. Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Ben Pickett, Mrs. William Rajpus, Mrs. Max Hartlerode, Mrs. Vaclav Drazil, Mrs. Mary Henzel, Mrs. Charles Dobry, Mrs. Marie Kalina, Mrs. George Brothnek, Mrs. Charles Duncan members; and guests, Mrs. Al Piazzi, who is visiting at the Henzel home.

to choose the right tie

—and shirt for HIM . . . choose it at Drews Manstore where they can, and will advise you on masculine taste. You can now avoid any chance of being kidded about your selection of "a Christmas tie" when they lend a helping hand. Right now they are featuring the very, very new ties in pink, helle, black and charcoal combinations that go so well with the new Hart Schaffner & Marx and Curlee dark CHARCOAL tone suits. But no matter what color his suit is or what color he prefers in shirts, Drews Manstore will be glad to help you select the right shade of tie. And at the same time they'll also give you tips on the selection of the RIGHT shirt, including the new ARROW shirts in pastel colors that come in both regular and French cuffs. Shop Drews Manstore, Martha says, for all Christmas gifts for men. The address . . . 733 Main Street . . .

hooked wool rugs liked

Hooked all wool rugs are proving popular with homemakers all over the country and the Basin is no exception Martha discovered. They're well-liked for several reasons and one of them is because of their conventional design which goes so well with American or traditional furniture. Klamath Furniture has some very attractive rugs of this type that come in various background colors including green, rose and brown. Sizes vary too, as these rugs are available as small as 27x48 inches and come in either oblong or oval. The 9x12's are priced at 119.50 . . . so you see these rugs are not too expensive. The smaller ones are not only ideal for your own home but also make very attractive Christmas gifts. Speaking of Christmas gifts . . . it's a good thing to remember that for practical gifts for the home Martha recommends you shop Klamath Furniture . . . 221 Main Street . . . yes, it's . . .

dolls - dolls - dolls

—and more dolls Martha recently paid a brief visit to Miller's children's department more to look at all the pretty new dresses and smart warm coats and all the other nice things for kiddies but she got no further than the dolls. There's good reasons, too, 'cause you just never saw anything more wonderful if you're the least bit young at heart. There were Minnie and Mickey Mouse dolls so soft and cuddly . . . teddy bears . . . monkeys . . . pussy cats . . . puppy dogs . . . clever clowns . . . in short, just gobs and gobs of dolls of all sizes and of all prices. Saw some of the famous Walt Disney hand puppets with a voice. Effanbee, Madame Alexander, and Rootie Kazotte and Polka Dottie dolls. The Effanbee and Madame Alexander dolls, Martha was told, are just about the finest you can find anywhere. They are washable, have rooted hair and you can do more with them than with a real baby . . . I believe, Effanbee dolls are priced from 9.95, Madame Alexander, from 5.95. A lot of the dolls I saw sold for as little as 98 cents. The Rootie Kazotte (boy) and Polka Dottie (girl) . . . seen on TV . . . are just 5.95. Oh, yes, Miller's have some last year's toys that are substantially reduced . . . for quick sale. So . . . fer almost everything for Christmas . . . stop . . . shop . . .

colorful boys' shirts

—that are as new as can be are being featured at Drews Boys' Wear Shop. These bright shirts have "the American look for American boys" that boast just the right colors all boys like. Choose from shrimp . . . and all the other wanted shades. And charcoal . . . canary . . . pink . . . sunset and gals . . . a good thing to know is this —that these rayon linen shirts are not only guaranteed washable but also said by numerous Basin mothers, to be the easiest to wash and iron ever! Sizes are from 6 to 18 . . . prices 3.95 and 4.95 at Drews Boys' Wear Shop . . . downstairs at Drews Manstore . . . 733 Main Street. give houseware gifts

Martha saw some very attractive items at the Bon Bazaar of wrought iron aluminum that look so much more expensive than they really are. Their shiny brightness will surprise you as much as their price. Included in the group are large lazy Suzans with a glass center dish for relishes, etc. at 7.49 . . . handsome serving tray, 7.49 . . . ice bucket, 5.79 . . . a good looking silent butter, 4.19 . . . a large salad bowl with wrought iron stand and spoon and fork, 7.49 . . . and a very cute candy dish, 2.49. Noticed some butter warmers in the design of a chicken that caught my eye. They have wrought iron stands and come with a warming candle underneath them. Certainly worth seeing . . . and only 1.29! Martha was attracted, too, by some natural wood items that even have the bark on them. There are nut bowls with picks and crackers . . . 98 cents and 1.69 . . . ash trays, 39 cents . . . candy bowls or baskets with handles, 98 cents . . . planters, 59 cents . . . and handsome chests with lock and key. These items all match and will certainly please someone. Another item . . . just arrived from Holland . . . consists of attractively painted and designed wooden shoes filled with chocolates. Priced 1.98 and 2.98. Also in this group are deft blue Chink shoes with candy in them that serve as ash trays when empty. Just 2.98. You'll find many, many other clever, inexpensive items in the housewares department at 4480 S. 6th . . . next door to the Oregon Food Store . . .
