STOCKS

NEW YORK — The stock market moved along on an irregular course Wednesday with prices spread over a wide range. Gains extended to between 2 and 4 points at the most in key areas. Trading dwindled as prices changed unceremoniously. Business came to an estimate 2,800,000 shares. That compares with 3,440,000 shares traded Tuesday when the market declined.

Patterson Backs Basic School Fund

PORTLAND (U — Gov. Paul Patterson said Tuesday he will not ask the next Legislature to abandon or curtail the basic school support fund—nor any other program approved by the voters or the Legislature.
Speaking at the Portland Retail Trade Bureau dinner, where he shared the platform with U.S. Sen-elect Richard L. Neuberger, Patterson said these cuts had been suggested as a possible solution to the state's financial problems.
"Other than to effect economies wherever possible," the state "should not drop, suspend or alter anything taken on through the vote of the people or the people's representatives," Patterson said.
He gave no hint as to what tax suggestions he might make to the Legislature, saying only, "I've noticed that the people of this state never fail to pay the bill if they've had a chance to pass on the measure."
Neuberger, in his talk, called for immediate appointment of a federal district judge to fill a vacancy created by the promotion of Judge James Aker Fee to the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals eight months ago.
"I seem to me urgent that an appointee be named to fill this vacancy because the docket has required the presence of visiting jurists in recent months," he said.
Speaking in a lighter vein, Neuberger indicated he thought most of his audience had supported Republican Sen. Guy Cordon in the recent election.
"I saw some people here that I thought voted for me. But now that they have cleared off the tables and left, I don't know whether anyone here voted for me," he said.

Annual Xmas Party Slated

The annual banquet and meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the YMCA building Wednesday, December 8. Speaker for the evening is Herbert L. Minard, YMCA World Service secretary in Jerusalem.
A fellowship hour beginning at 6:30 will precede the 7 p.m. dinner. Business will include announcement of results of election of six board members to serve for a two-year term. Recognition will be given those who have rendered volunteer service and individual representatives of various youth and adult programs will report on their field of activity.
Special entertainment will be provided through the courtesy of Andrew Loney Jr., supervisor of music education in the city schools.
The guest speaker is home on furlough after four years in the strife-ridden Holy Land as "Y" program secretary. During 1953 he served as acting general secretary while Les Putnam was on furlough. He has served, too, as the international committee representative in working with Arab refugees in Jordan.
One of the comparatively few men allowed free access across the Israeli-Jordan border, Minard has worked with Arab refugee camps in Jordan where a YMCA school is providing their own education for 650 refugee boys, and during 1952-53 was an interim pastor of St. Andrew's Church in Jerusalem.
In his first assignment in China he opened a service center for American forces. In Nanking and other Chinese cities he helped in rehabilitation and experimenting in modern methods of young men's work. He worked with Army personnel in religious and cultural programs, served as pastor of the Union Church and was a close observer of Chinese life and politics.
Minard is a graduate of Chapman College in Los Angeles, studied at Drake University and University of Southern California where he received an M.A. degree in history and education.
Reservations for the $1 no-host turkey dinner should be made at the "Y" headquarters early since space limits attendance at the banquet to 200. John Sandmeyer, YMCA board president, will preside at the dinner meeting. Mrs. R. P. Ellingson is chairman of the fellowship hour.

HERBERT L. MINARD, YMCA World Service secretary in Jerusalem, will be featured speaker at the YMCA annual banquet and meeting Wednesday, December 8.
