At the ceremony, Frances Estes will be inducted as new cub for Mrs. William Hild's Den No. 4.

Judge Fines Rabbit Hunter

Arlene Winford Martin, Route 2, Box 550, was fined $500 and sentenced to 30 days in the county jail when she pleaded guilty before District Judge D. E. Vaz Vador Wednesday to a charge of killing an animal of another while trespassing.

Martha Ellen Rose of the same address was placed on eight months probation for complicity in the alleged killing of a bull calf on the Edgar Mitchell farm west of Merrill.

tin turned on him with a loaded shotgun. At this point Mitchell, approaching from the side, and also armed with a shotgun, persuaded Martin to lay down his gun.

The trespassers were taken to the Mitchell house where they were held until state police officers arrived. When questioned about the killing of the calf Martin first declared he had accidentally shot it while aiming at a jack rabbit. Later the story was changed implicating Martha Rose as the one who pulled the trigger that dropped the calf, this also was said to be accidental. Investigation disclosed that the animal had been shot in the head eight times with a .22 caliber rifle.

It rocks! It rotates!

IT WAS BOUND TO HAPPEN
 The popularity of the West's most comfortable chair persuaded the makers to design the "ROTO-ROCK" in two sizes . . . one for pop and one for mom. "His" chair is wider, deep-seated, foam rubber backed . . . "her" chair is just as smart, just as comfortable, but built with foam rubber seat! Both chairs can be moved without tilting . . . both rock . . . both rotate in a full circle on a ball-bearing base. And, of course both are upholstered in a wide choice of decorator covers with non-sag springs under a deep cushion seat. They're here . . . now . . . see them!

Durham's Bridge Set
 Durham's newest . . . a new feeling in design. Gay, light and modern and sturdy as Early American. It's easily folded, quickly set-up, the table legs lock securely and even cushioned with heavy rubber. You'll like the Heather Tweed finish in Charcoal or Teagt, too!
