Munsell May Miss Jamboree

Gloom struck the Klamath Union High School basketball scene late this week as the Pelicans prepared for the Big Four Jamboree to be held in Grants Pass tonight, as left-center Guy Munsell suffered a knee injury during practice sessions.

According to KU hoop boss it is still uncertain just how serious the injury is, or how much the two-year monogram winner will play against the other three Southern Oregon Conference schools in the annual pre-season jamboree.

Besides the news of Munsell's injury, Peterson also announced his starting lineup with leeway for Munsell should he recover quick enough from his knee troubles.

At the starting center spot will be big Dave D'Olivo, 6-4, while Larry Yarnell and Munsell, Denny Todd or Orin Perkins will fill in at the two forward posts. The guard selections for the opening action of the jamboree are set to go to Jack Sunitsch and Danny Lowe.

Besides these seven hoopers, Peterson is taking seven more making a traveling squad of 14 seeking their way over the Green-springs today in hopes of handing the favored valley teams a surprise in tonight's action.

The others who are bound to see plenty of court duty before the jamboree is over tonight are Craig McCarty, Dave Pepple, Jerry Barker, Darin Martin, Jim Blanchard, Marlin Causey and Armand Olson. Assistant coach Ray Coley is also making the jaunt to Grants Pass.

Last year, Ashland won all three of the quarters that they played to win the jamboree held on their new floor, while D'Olivo was the high individual scorer of the evening by dunking 15 points through the hoop, followed by Gene Parent of Ashland with 14, Parent

Hill To Be Honored At Annual KU Grid Feast

Ralph Hill, Henley farmer, who was recently named to the all-time United States Olympic track and field team, will be the guest of honor at the 16th annual Klamath Falls Lions Club football banquet Tuesday night at the Willard Hotel. The ex - University of Oregon track star, who gained national recognition for his mile and 800 meter running ability, was selected to be the guest of honor at the annual banquet honoring KUHS footballers, following his selection to the all-time track and field star. The KUHS coaching staff headed by John McGinnis, will present the most inspirational player award and the outstanding lineman trophy during the program, as well as other awards that will be handed out to Pelican footballers.

The guest speaker for the annual dinner affair which starts at 7 o'clock, will be Bill Bowerman head track coach at the University of Oregon.

Bowerman, who has been a member of the university coaching staff since 1948, is known throughout the country as a top flight track coach and has been in charge of the schools very successful grant-in-aid program for the past two seasons.

He is the assistant athletic director under Leo Harris and handles quite a lot of the public relations between high school groups and the university, and is a very good speaker.

Every year, the Klamath Lion's Club holds this banquet for the high school football team and it is open to the public, both men and women and especially the parents

Saxton Whips Fuentes

By BOB MYERS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It isn't fair to knock two guys who tried to make something out of nothing for 10 rounds, but the fact remains that the non-title welterweight match between the champion, Johnny Saxton, and the No. 3 challenger, Ramon Fuentes, was honestly fought, close and filled with excitement.

The outcome Thursday night found the champ from Brooklyn the winner by a unanimous decision. It also eliminated any public clamor for a return match for the title, for at the finish both boys were in danger of getting hit with wadded up paper cups sent flying by an impatient gallery. The boxing bout was a tug of war, without much war. There were no knockdowns. But somehow or other Saxton wound up with his right eye swollen the size of a walnut—Texas nut, that is—and Fuentes, the local ex-grave digger, nursed a split at his right eye.

Referee Frankie Van, weary from separating the fighters all evening, called it 98 for Saxton under California's 11-point per round system to 61 1/2.

The judges, Tommy Hart and Charlie Randolph, seemed nearer. Each had it 56-54, which matched The Associated Press card.

Saxton, reputedly no amateur in the clutch and hold fashion of boxing, met his master in this department. Fuentes yields this system to no one.

In the early rounds, Fuentes got a little in front by the simple process of hitting with his right and then holding on. Most of the rights landed on Saxton's back-side.

Later Johnny managed to get in to hit and hold first, and this was when the fans, in the fourth round, began to stamp their feet and boo.

Perhaps the sharpest delivery came in the eighth. The two were locked tight on the ropes when a fan up above let loose with his paper wad. It clipped Ramon on the chin and might be accorded a near miss on Saxton. Took great marksmanship, that throw.

The main surprise was the attendance. The patrons had been duly warned by the boxing writers all week that this could be a whale of a thing for dollars.

But 8,800 trooped into the 10,600-seat Olympic Auditorium, paying $39,650. Saxton weighed 148. Fuentes 149.

Klamath Gun Club Plans Turkey Shoot

The Klamath Gun Club has scheduled another turkey shoot this Sunday morning starting at 10:30, according to a club spokesman today.

Anyone interested in taking part in the day long activities is welcome to attend and spectators are also urged to watch the local gunners seek out their Christmas turkey on the firing line.

Besides the shoot, for turkeys for beginners as well as advance marksmen, there will be gun games for those attending the shoot.

of the boys who played football at the high school this past season or in years already past. John Schubert is the chairman of the event this year.

Tickets for the banquet are on sale at Drews, Don's, Hal's Sport Shop, and the Willard Hotel for $2 a plate, Schubert stated.

West Coast Basketball Into Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
West Coast basketball goes into full stride this weekend with practically all major colleges, and most of the small ones, too, hitting the hardwoods.

All nine members of the Pacific Coast Conference will play but only one game will match conference teams both Friday night and Saturday.

California, a darkhorse of the PCC Southern Division, meets Oregon State, defending champion of the Northern Division, in a double-header at Eugene that co-features Oregon against Santa Clara. Saturday night the four teams move to Corvallis, California playing Oregon and Oregon State meeting Santa Clara.

Other major games Friday night include USC vs. Loyola at Long Beach, Hawaii at Washington, Idaho at Utah, San Jose State at Stanford and UCLA vs. Bruin Alumni.

Saturday night's top games include St. Mary's at Stanford, Gonzaga at Washington State, Kansas State at UCLA, Idaho at Utah and Hawaii at Washington.

Midwest, Pacific Coast Hold Share Of Top Backs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The beautiful Midwest and Pacific Coast offer the majority of All America backfield candidates this year—like Ralph Guglielmi, Alan Ameche, Howard Cassady, Paul Larson, Bob Davenport and George Shaw.

In fact, the Midwest All America Board has come up with more players in their own area than there's room for in any one backfield.

Quarterbacks Guglielmi of Notre Dame and Len Dawson of Purdue, halfbacks Howard Cassady of Ohio State and Bob McNamara of Minnesota and fullbacks Ameche of Wisconsin and Hubert Bobo of Ohio State all received strong support from their area.

Oregon's George Shaw and California's Paul Larson, a pair of field generals who rank 1-2 nationally in total offense, wound up on the first all PCC team together and are among the leading nominees. Reports from the Pacific slopes indicate that Davenport, of UCLA's unbeaten, untied Bruins, is as fine a fullback as there is in the land.

And from Southern Cal's Rose Bowl-bound Trojans comes halfback Lindon Crow.

These two sections don't have a monopoly, of course.

Rice halfback Dick Moele capped a great year by scoring two touchdowns, one on a 91-yard punt return, as the Owls knocked Baylor out of a possible Southwest Conference first place tie. Another Big Southwest name if fullback Henry Moore, workhorse of regional champion Arkansas.

In the East, Army's Pete Vann and West Virginia's Freddie Wyant proved master ball handlers at quarterback for their respective teams. Penn State junior halfback Lenny Moore and Boston University fullback Sam Pino have been rated tops as runners.

Fullbacks are plentiful in the Southland with Maryland's Dick Bielski, Auburn's Joe Childress

Frank Ryff Faces Test In Zulueta

NEW YORK (AP)—Young Frankie Ryff has come up so fast this year that he's a candidate for fight rookie of the year as well as being in line for a shot at the lightweight title.

The 22-year-old New Yorker will get the second big test of his budding career tonight when he faces 26-year-old Orlando Zulueta in Madison Square Garden.

Frankie is the 8-5 choice although the clever Cuban is ranked higher in the division. Zully is ranked as the fourth contender and Ryff No. 5.

Tonight's 10-round figures to be a duel of left hands. Both are fine boxers lacking power.

In winning 15 out of 16, Frankie has stopped only three rivals. Zulueta's record is 51-21-9 with six kayos. Neither has been stopped. Despite his inexperience, several keen observers believe the New Yorker is ready right now for champion Jimmy Carter.
