BPW Plans Emblem Initiation Ceremony

The impressive emblem ceremony for initiation of candidates in the Business and Professional Women's Club will be Monday night, December 6, following the 6:30 dinner at the Willard Hotel. Imogene Boothby, membership chairman, will be in charge. Initiates will be Ruby Addison, Nancy Adams, Marian Barker, Leola Heilbroner, Gladys Kelly, Wyn Lawrence, Louise Milani, Mary Jane Plasted, Harriet Redden, Ethel Schultz.

A membership contest, captained by Evelyn Blehn and Marianna Kerr, will continue until January 31. Two points will be given for renewals and one point for new members. The losing side puts on a program for the winning.

Club motto this year is "More for '54."

BPW is again sponsoring the New York Drama Guild plays this winter and will bring to Klamath Falls three which have had long runs on Broadway. All have played in other principal cities of the U.S.

BPW offers an opportunity for playgoers to enjoy "The Four Poster" on February 5, "Stag No. 17" on March 19 and "The Velvet Glove" on April 16.

The annual Christmas party will be December 20. A toy is to be taken for an inter-agency distribution at Christmas. There will be a social hour at this meeting from 6 to 8:30 p.m. gift of the Willard Hotel to the members.

Aloha Past Matrons Luncheon Features Thanksgiving Motif

A huge papier-mache turkey on a large platter centered the serving table when Aloha Past Matrons Club met for a Thanksgiving luncheon Friday afternoon, November 27, in the Masonic Hall parlor.

Hostesses were Norma Uerlings, Alma Cofer and Betty Hunter. Nineteen past matrons were present, Alma Getz, Claire Alice Epperson, Elizabeth Norris, Dorthea Wortley, Amelia Hanks, Helen Spiker, Sally Wood, Nellie Wattenburg, Louise O'Brien, Rhoda Harnden, Helen Tucker, Grace Cole, May Phinney, Myrtle Bartlett, Clara DeWitt and the hostesses.

Helen Tucker, Tualatin, was a guest for the afternoon. Myrtle Bartlett was welcomed as a new member.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Getz, president, who had been presented a small gavel by Mrs. Cole.

The calling committee reported Charlotte Martin ill and Sadie Holloway recovered.

Cards were played with prizes going to Mrs. Bartlett, Miss Phinney and Mrs. DeWitt. Awards were jars of home canned fruits.

The December meeting, the 31st, will be a potluck luncheon at 1 p.m. and an exchange of gifts not costing more than 25 cents.

December hostesses will be Mrs. Harnden and Miss Phinney; Mrs. Epperson and Mrs. Wortley will comprise the calling committee.

BAKED SQUASH

Baked acorn or Danish squash is a universal favorite this time of year. On menus when you are not serving potatoes, try filling the baked squash with dried cooked lima beans tossed with crumbled cooked bacon.

WAFFLE TOPPING

If you want a different topping for waffles or pancakes, here's an idea for a change and a new taste sensation. Mix equal parts of apricot jam and honey. Season lightly with cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg. Heat the mixture before serving.

Zuleima Nile Club Committee Stages Preview of Christmas for Members

A preview of Christmas was given Zuleima Nile Club members at the regular luncheon meeting at the Willard Hotel Wednesday, December 1.

Tables were decorated in the holiday theme and Christmas music was presented by the Altamont Junior High School Chorus, jaunty in bright red weskits. This group, directed by Violet Moore, was eagerly anticipated and fulfilled all expectations in its rendition of six songs of the season.

President Peggy Chilcote conducted the meeting; invocation was given by Edna Jones.

Committee for the day was introduced by Gretchen Thompson in the absence of the chairman, Mary Barkdoll. Committee members included Vera Teal, Joanna Chapman, Roma Thomas, Edna Jones, Donna Sprout, Emma West, Kathleen Thompson, Iona Mae Wells, Catherine Ligmán, Coe Brown, Beulah Balaiger, Lillian Hills and Gene Oldenburg comprised the entertainment committee.

A birthday prize was awarded Willie Jane Kennedy and a special prize went to Peggy Wiesendanger.

Virginia Mack reported on the size and disposal of the Thanksgiving gift box.

Each member brought to the meeting a gaily wrapped Christmas gift for crippled children at Shrine Hospital. The club was informed that, in accordance with its wishes, a check has been sent the Mexico City Shrine Hospital for purchase of much needed toys.

Vice president, Florence West, announced that the next stated Zuleima Temple meeting will be held in Grants Pass December 11. Reservations should be made with her.

Janice Goodman Becomes Mrs. Edward Gene Croucher

Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Medford, was the scene of the November 29 marriage of Janice Goodman to Edward Gene Croucher.

She is the daughter of Clinton Goodman, Portland, and Mrs. John W. Kirby, Medford, formerly of Klamath Falls. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Croucher, Medford.

The Rev. Father Charles J. Scott celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin which ended in a cathedral train. Her illusion veil was caught to a Juliette satin and lace cap.

On a white prayer book were a handmade lace handkerchief, gift of her maternal grandmother, and two white orchids.

Mrs. Hal Krueger was matron of honor; Mrs. David Seutter and Lorraine Croucher, the bridegroom's sister, were attendants. They wore copper colored waltz length gowns and carried green orchids flown in from Australia. Flower girls, Judith and Joyce Fulton, Crater Lake National Park, wore white and copper and carried baskets of petals.

Hal Krueger was best man; ushers were Lloyd Dyer, Allen Hurt and William Walton.

Larry Schaefer and Paul Smith served at Mass. Bruno Pellegrini was organist.

The wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents was attended by 122 guests. Pouring and serving at the buffet were Mrs. William E. Driscoll, Mrs. Robert Browne, Mrs. Ernest Hood Jr., Judith Gilbert, all of Medford; Mrs. Alonzo Hodges and Mrs. Floyd Whitlatch, Merrill. Mrs. Otto Ellis, Klamath Falls, presided at the guest book.

Other guests from the Basin included Mrs. John Kirby Sr. and Mrs. David Seutter, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Don Harris and daughters, Floyd Whitlatch, Alonzo Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. James Kirby and Richard Kirby, Merrill; Mr. and Mrs. John Fulton, Crater Lake National Park.

For travel the bride wore an avocado colored suit, champagne colored accessories, alligator shoes and bag and a white orchid. Wedding flowers were sent to her paternal grandmother who was unable to attend the ceremony.

Following a honeymoon trip to Death Valley the couple is at home at Apartment 4, 507 Sherman Street, Medford.

MALIN LADIES AID

The November social meeting of the Malin Community Presbyterian Church Ladies Aid Society was called to order by the president, Mrs. Halbert Wilson, who asked for help setting tables Sunday November 28, at the potluck dinner to be given following the morning church service, complementing the speakers for the day.

The meeting was then turned over to the program chairman for November, Mrs. J. Walter Browning, who gave the devotionals in original verse, following which, a Thanksgiving duet was sung by Mrs. Art Robinson and Mrs. E. L. Cunningham. Mrs. Browning then introduced the speaker, Mrs. E. Webb - Bowen of Tulelake, who had chosen as her topic, "Poems of Thanksgiving," which she read in her own inimitable style. Background organ music was played by Mrs. Ernest L. Gray; piano accompaniments by Mrs. Laddie Rajanus.

Hostesses Mrs. C. M. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Jack Ratliff Sr., served pumpkin pie with whipped cream to the following members and guests, Mrs. Webb - Bowen and her guest, Mrs. Alverdo Crocker, local artist of Tulelake; the president, Mrs. Wilson; Mrs. Emma Willis, Mrs. Teresa McComb, Mrs. Milo Smith, Mrs. Lewis Kandra, Mrs. Loyal Loveless, Mrs. Robert Holl, Mrs. Carl C. DeMott, Mrs. A. E. Street, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Carlo Cornett, Mrs. Dick Henzel, Mrs. Marvin Shell, Mrs. Ernest Gray, Mrs. E. L. Cunningham, Mrs. Art Robinson and the program chairman, Mrs. Browning.
