

Bal Meet Opens With Trade Talk

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—The major leagues opened their annual winter meetings today and the big talk centered on the proposed trade between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds.

Some quarters said the teams already have completed a five-player deal, but this was denied. The two clubs definitely have a trade in the making, though. The key player would be Brooklyn's Junior Gilliam, the Negro infielder who may have lost favor with the front office. Both the Reds and Philadelphia are interested in him.

UNIDENTIFIED
The Phillies have offered catcher Smokey Burgess and a young outfielder, as yet unidentified. The Reds have suggested a package deal involving Fred Baczewski, left-handed pitcher, for Gilliam, and either veteran Russ Meyer or youngster Bobo Milliken, both right-handed pitchers.

As late as last night, E. J. (Buzie) Bavasi, Dodger vice-president, was deliberating the offer.

The Reds have an alternate deal with the St. Louis Cardinals, but they are seeking a second baseman with the idea of shifting Johnny Temple to third. Relief pitcher Frank Smith is the Cincinnati ball.

Brooklyn also is expected to do some business with the American League. The Dodgers finally have obtained waivers on Billy Cox and are dickering with Cleveland and Baltimore for the sale of the veteran third baseman. Cox will go to the highest bidder. The asking price is $40,000 plus one or two players of minor league caliber.

Ring Fans Support Top Bout

Offer the fans a good attraction and they'll make the turnstiles whirr. Boston promoter Sam Silverman offers the proof again Saturday night with an outstanding fight card topped by a 10-rounder between Tony DeMarco, Boston's hard-hitting welterweight contender, and Jolting Joe Miceli of New York.

That match by itself would have assured Silverman of a profitable gate at the Boston Garden. But he threw in three more good bouts featuring local and national fighters and what'll be have? — a sellout crowd of around 13,000 and a gate of $70,000.

Underneath the top bout, Silverman has matched featherweights Tommy Collins, once the idol of Boston, and Lulu Perez, of Brooklyn; lightweight George Araujo, of Dallas; and sailor Ed Sanders, Olympic heavyweight champion, and Boston's Willie James in a 12-rounder for the New England title.

Once-beaten Carmelo Costa, seventh-ranking featherweight contender from Brooklyn, is a 12-5 favorite to whip Bobby Bell, ex-10 from Youngstown, Ohio, in a 12-rounder at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena tonight.

ABC will telecast at 10 p.m. EST.

Italy's Italo Scorticini and Cuba's Chico Varona are rated even in the betting for their welterweight 10-rounder tonight at New York's St. Nicholas Arena. Scorticini, a busy little fellow has a 23-14 record. Varona's record is 57-15.

Du Mont will telecast at 10 p.m. EST.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Authorities ordered an autopsy Monday in the death Sunday night of Dave Sparks, Washington Redskins tackle who collapsed about two hours after playing a National Football League game.

Sparks, 26-year-old former University of South Carolina star, died after dining at the home of a friend, L. Domenick Colella of nearby Arlington, Va.

Dick McCann, general manager of the Redskins, said doctors indicated they believe Sparks died of a heart attack.

Sparks, a Lorain, Ohio, resident, was unmarried. Playing his seventh season as a professional, he suffered no apparent injury, except for hip bruises, in Sunday's game against the Cleveland Browns.

McCann said Sparks complained of a chest pain at the Colella home and rested before dinner. He collapsed after the meal and was dead when police arrived.

The Redskins-Browns game was telecast in parts of the East and was watched in Lorain by Sparks' father, Walter, 48. The elder Sparks, a construction engineer, learned of his son's death while watching another television program.

A friend related that the news "just didn't sink in at first. Walter sat there like he was stunned. Then he went all to pieces."

Sparks was a standout performer in Sunday's game. The Redskins lost 34-14, but Sparks' play on both offense and defense was a big factor in making a close contest of Washington's meeting with the division-leading Browns.

Kentucky, LaSalle Leading Ballclubs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A couple of familiar faces — Kentucky and LaSalle — stood out today as the college basketball season entered the first full week of action around the country.

The Wildcats, in fact, have an opportunity to set a school record Saturday when they play Xavier of Ohio on the enemy court.

They've already equalled their all-time winning streak of 26 games, and if they beat Xavier, Coach Adolph Rupp can point to another record.

The reconstructed Wildcats have played only one game, but it was an impressive 74-54 victory over Louisiana State Saturday night.

The big gun was Phil (Cookie) Grawemeyer, a 6-7 veteran from last year's unbeaten outfit.

LaSalle, the NCAA champion last year, now shows a 3-0 mark and should emerge the class of the East. The Explorers got past their first major test when they thumped Loyola of New Orleans 85-71 with All-American Tom Gola dropping in 27 points—16 in the second half.

They have another dangerous foe on tap Saturday in Niagara. In fact, since Niagara dropped Fordham 75-61 the Purple Eagles could emerge LaSalle's main contender for Eastern honors.

OPERATIONS

On the subject of streaks, Notre Dame has a 17-game regular-season skunk going. The Irish opened operations with a 72-61 triumph over Wisconsin. They play North-western, which should prove easy pickin's Wednesday, but must entertain Indiana Saturday.</
