Four Women Die In Fire

GERMANTOWN, Md. (AP)—Four elderly women died in a fire that broke out early Monday at a rest home in this town 25 miles northwest of Washington.

Volunteer fire fighters managed to evacuate most of the patients despite subfreezing weather and intermittent snowfall. Eighteen other persons were reported injured. None was seriously hurt.

The Montgomery County coroner's office listed these persons as dead in the fire at the Marylander rest home:

Sally Turpin, 96, Matilda Kober, 84, and Mrs. Yates Duke, 73, all of Washington, and Mrs. Dora Ward, 82, of Rickville, Md.

The fire, which was restricted to a small section of the building, broke out on a sleeping porch, which had been converted from a solarium and enclosed. Some of the patients were sleeping in the area when the flames first were reported at about 3 a.m.

An explosion in a small gas heater placed on the sleeping porch apparently set off the fire. The heater was being used to supplement the regular hot water heating facilities.

Eyewitnesses said the volunteer firemen extinguished the flames quickly but were hampered by thick clouds of smoke and the bitter cold weather.

Army Recruiting Policy Changed

A change in army recruiting policy was announced today by SFC Warren M. Long, local army recruiting sergeant. The change is effective immediately. Prior and non-prior service applicants with dependents will be permitted to enlist.

Heretofore single men only were permitted to volunteer for enlistment. The army recruiting office is located in room 309 post office building, Klamath Falls.

nothing unemployment policy," the CIO chief maintained that union collective bargaining and social measures enacted under prior Democratic administrations have prevented economic collapse.

During the past year, he said, unions "succeeded in raising the general wage level and in preventing any large-scale wave of mass wage cuts as had occurred during most previous economic declines. As the economy moved downward there was a natural rise in unemployment compensation payments to the jobless. Together with an increase in other social security payments, they partially offset the decline in personal income. The government's farm price support program kept farm income from greater collapse."

"The stabilizing forces that were built into the economy during the Roosevelt and Truman administrations helped to prevent a precipitous decline."

Reuther urged further wage boosts, government-aided housing and public works plans, reduced taxes on lower incomes, and higher minimum wage and unemployment compensation levels to bolster consumer purchasing power. "A resumption of economic growth," he said, "can result only from an increase in spending."

Greyhound Honors Driver

In recognition of a 10-year safe driving record in which he covered an estimated three quarter million miles, Otto Nichols, local Greyhound bus driver, was feted at a safety meeting and birthday dinner at the Winema Hotel last week by company officials, drivers and their wives.

A wrist watch was presented to Nichols by W. H. Egger, Portland, Greyhound's regional manager for Division 7. Nichols has operated buses in this division for 37 years. With a driving record that dates back to 1921 when he drove one of the first stages operated by Howard and Grimes between Klamath Falls and Medford, Nichols has piled up an enviable record of about 2 million miles of highway driving without injury to a passenger.

Following his initial job behind the wheel of an old time Cadillac for Howard and Grimes, he then operated for Bill Lee on a run to Crater Lake and a Chiloquin run for George Bell, later driving for the Southern Oregon Stages.

When Greyhound purchased existing lines in Southern Oregon in 1927 Nichols joined the new company and has been behind the wheel of a Greyhound bus every since.

For the past five years he has operated on a Redding schedule, making a round trip to that city five days each week.

He has a son Roger in the U.S. Air Force, stationed at Fairchild AFB, Spokane, and a daughter Mrs. Frances Lipsit, who lives at Kirkland, Washington.

Nichols and his wife Georgia reside at the Audley Apartments on South Eighth Street.
