The student council has not approved of the final budget yet but is expected to work on it next Tuesday. The student council is also offering a five dollar prize for the best pep song. There will be no second or third prizes in the contest. Honorable mention will be given instead, in the form of ribbons.

A sports reporter and a noon games committee have been appointed by the student council. The sports reporter is Rudy Hedberg. The noon games committee will be in charge of setting up pingpong tables and other games during the noon hour when the weather is stormy. Chairman of the committee is Ronald House.

The third National Assembly of the year was held on Monday, December 6. It featured Fleming Orem and his marimba. Viola Orem sang several selections and was accompanied by her husband. They also played selections together on the marimba.

Tulelake Plans Xmas Party

TULELAKE — The Tulelake ambulance fund for the purchase of a new $6,000 vehicle has reached $4,000.

The fund was boosted $190 by the recent movie shown at the Marcha Theater when proceeds were donated by Vac Kalina, theater owner, to the 20-30 Club, sponsor of the drive to buy a larger, speedier automobile to replace the present one in use for several years.

Merrill Girls Win Awards

Two outstanding 4-H Club members, Dorothy Danosky and Maxine Morse of Merrill, have received further recognition for their champion food preparation demonstration. Art Nordquist, local Safeway manager, Saturday presented to each of the girls a cash award and certificate of their accomplishments.

Dorothy and Maxine worked together as a team to demonstrate how to prepare and pack a well balanced, pleasing school lunch. Since the girls received the championship in their division, they were selected to represent Klamath County at the Oregon State Fair.

Dorothy has completed six years of 4-H Club work in knitting and cooking. Maxine has started her fifth year of club work. She has completed projects in both knitting and cooking.

The girls belong to the cooking club led by Mrs. V. C. Rexford of Merrill.

The Safeway Stores in Oregon this year sponsored three phases of 4-H Club work as they have in former years. These are the 4-H livestock breeding contest, the 4-H food preservation and-or preparation contest, and the 4-H dollar dinner demonstration contest.

Grange Holds Installation Of Officers
