

Webfoot '5' Beats Seattle Chieftains

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Northern Division had to settle for an even split Tuesday night in basketball games with a pair of the Pacific Northwest's stronger independent outfits.

Oregon controlled the ball and the backboards to hand Seattle University a 86-73 spanking at Eugene. But Idaho, also playing on its home court at Moscow, couldn't match the pace of Spokane's Gonzaga Bulldogs and bowed 88-67.

It was Gonzaga's second straight win over a Northern Division five. The Bulldogs beat Washington State 69-61 in their season-opener last week.

Oregon easily outclassed the team Seattle U. had been hailing as the best since the graduation of Johnny and Eddie O'Brien. The Chieftains couldn't get untracked against the Ducks who led in all but the opening minutes. Seattle took a 4-2 lead at the start but Oregon poured in 10 quick points and the Chieftains never caught up.

The Ducks led 47-37 at the half and had a 19-point margin, 64-45, when the second half was six minutes old. With three minutes left, Seattle moved up to 79-71 but Oregon went into ball control and widened its lead on free throws. Oregon's Max Anderson and Seattle's Stan Glowacki shared scoring honors with 25 points apiece.

At Moscow, Harlan Melton netted 23 points for Idaho and Harry Watson matched the effort for Gonzaga out the Vandals ran out of steam in the closing minutes. The Bulldogs easily pulled away. Trailing 37-42 at the half, Idaho went ahead 43-44 early in the second frame. The Zags bucketed eight points.

game was never in doubt.
