Henley Bethel Has Dec. Meeting

Henley Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, held its regular meeting at the Mt. Laki Community Church Monday night, December 6.

Honored Queen Maureen Lyon presided in the east before a host of members and guests.

Honored guests escorted to the east and given honors were Jackie Ackerman, honored queen of Bethel No. 6; Mrs. W. L. Poole, past guardian; Mrs. George Boudon, guardian; George Boudon, associate guardian of Bethel No. 6. Special guest was Mrs. Herman Givold, a past council member of Bethel No. 6.

Plans were finalized for the home cooked food sale held December 11.

A report of the recent Bethel dance was given by Rebecca Short. Dance theme was "Indian Summer" and decorations featured an Indian tepee with a lighted fireplace; cardboard wild geese suspended from the ceiling and the fall harvest represented by corn stalks and pumpkins. Couples danced under the light of an Indian summer moon fastened in one corner of the ceiling.

Honored Queen Maureen mentioned the work the librarian is doing to prepare the scrapbook for the grand session to be held in Portland in early spring. The handtooled leather scrapbook was made and presented the group by Hazel Jo DeLamater.

Guardian Mrs. Wallace Thompson has offered her home to members for refreshments after the first annual Christmas caroling December 23 at which time the group will also have a Christmas tree and gift exchange.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold Dehlinger.
