

THIRTEEN VENTURESOME MISSES accepted the rights and duties of Venture Club in reception ceremonies held Tuesday evening, December 7, at Little Sweden. New members of the Soroptimist-sponsored organization are, from left, seated,

Mary McConell, Myrle Theroux, Eleanor McKillip; standing, Hazel Schieferstein, Mary Bruner, Jean Moore, Bonnie O'Harra, Jean Jamieson, Emilie Elliott, Barbara Stivers, Doralyn Parton, Barbara Solie and Kathryn Wampler.

WILMA STARBUCK, social service chairman, Women of the Moose, Chapter 467, conducted chapter night program Tuesday, December 7, at Moose Hall.

WOM Hold Chapter Program

Wilma Starbuck, social service chairman, Women of the Moose, Chapter 467, held her chapter night program Tuesday, December 7, at Moose Hall.

Mrs. Starbuck introduced Sergeant Donald Trainer of the Ground Observer Corps who gave a talk in observance of the anniversary of Pearl Harbor day.

Members were also entertained by a group of Klamath Union High School boys composed of Bob Clark, Bob Ziegler, Larry and Garry Phair. Ray Behnke accompanied at the piano and joined in some selections.

At the close of her program, Mrs. Starbuck was escorted to the altar where the senior regent, Ruth Chapel, presented her with a token gift of appreciation from the chapter for the work she has done.

Two candidates were initiated in honor of the social service chairman. They were Margaret Clifford and Elsie E. Stang, both sponsored by Mildred Eklund.

After the meeting, refreshments were served to 60 members by the chairman and her committee from a beautifully appointed table. The centerpiece was an arrangement of poinsettias and candles. Napkins and accessories carried out the Christmas season theme. Committee members assisting were Agnes Nelson, Charlotte Carmichael, Ann O'Gier and Irene Robertson.

ONE OF THE MANY DANCES to appear on the social calendar with the approaching Yuletide season is the annual dinner dance for all city schools personnel and guests. Sponsored by the Faculty Wives Club, this year's turkey and ham buffet and Christmas dance will be held at Reames Golf and Country Club Saturday, December 18. Club president is Mrs. L. W. Simons, left. Shown with her are committee members, Mrs. James Palmer, center, and Mrs. Jack Kemnitzer. Not pictured is Mrs. Len Surles. — Photo by Don Kettler, Staff Photographer

AN IMPRESSIVE CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY was conducted when 13 new members were received into the Venture Club Tuesday evening at Little Sweden. Girls lighted their tapers from flames of officers' and present members' candles, and received the pledge of Venture Club. From left, Doralyn Parton and Jean Jamieson, initiates; Marilyn Hemingsen, secretary and Ellen Murphy, vice president.

VENTURE CLUB IS SOPORTIMIST-SPONSORED, and on hand to witness the impressive candlelight reception ceremony for 13 new members Tuesday evening were Vera Powell, left, Soroptimist advisor for Venture Club with Crystal Cloake, third from left, and Alice Lamm, Soroptimist Club president. Pinning corsages on the special guests is Ann Egan, Venture Club president. —Venture Photos by Guderian

Venturists Stage Impressive Ceremony for 13 Initiates

Thirteen girls formed a circle with Venture Club officers, lighted symbolic tapers and recited the pledge of Venturism at reception ceremonies held Tuesday evening, December 7, at Little Sweden.

The candidates for membership, present members of the club, Soroptimist representatives and special guests were feted at a smorgasbord and baked ham dinner prior to the candlelight ceremonies.

Speaker of the evening, Mrs. Larry Maritz, president of Toastmistress Club, urged members to "Be the best of whatever you are," and quoted a poem on the same theme.

"Don't buy-pass the things money cannot buy," the speaker emphasized and told the initiates to "Continue throughout your life the interest you have shown in these initiation ceremonies." She urged the young Venturists to "keep a good reputation, a clear conscience, a knowledge of having given something to others, to be well adjusted in social relations and maintain an appreciation of art, music and literature."

Musical portion of the program was provided by Geraldine Johnson, Tulelake, who played three organ selections.

Initiates included Mary McConell, Hazel Schieferstein, Barbara Solie, Jean Moore, Kathryn Wampler, Myrle Theroux, Doralyn Parton, Jean Jamieson, Barbara Stivers, Emilie Elliott, Bonnie O'Harra, Eleanor McKillip and Mary Bruner.

Special guests were Alice

SOROPTIMIST CLUB MEETS

Winston Purvine, director of Oregon Technical Institute will be guest speaker at the December 16 meeting of the Soroptimist Club.

The Christmas party will be held December 23 with Eloise McIntyre, Ruth Lobaugh and Doris Fredrick in charge. Lucille O'Neill will give a book review on December 30.

The club met Thursday, December 9 for a business meeting in the Winema Hotel with Alice Lamm, presiding.

Members brought toys for underprivileged children. The following committees are serving this year: attendance - Ruth Ray, chairman; Lucille Buswell, Jean Puckett; audit - Elbel Matthews, chairman, Mary Bothwell; budget and finance - Mary Bothwell, chairman, Barbara Carnini, Ota Smith, Ida Odell; by-laws - Vivian Owens, chairman, Thelma Henry.

Classification and membership - Edna Albrecht, chairman; Gertrude Moore, Isabelle Brixner, Jennie Southwell; chaplain, Ellen Clark - chairman, Alma Mullis; extension - Kathleen Thompson, chairman, Bea Bell, Beth Griggs, Ruth Adams.

Historical - Elva Kenyon; hospitality - Mildred Burke, chairman, Pearl Drew, Lena Ferebee, Ruth Hattam; international and sister club - Doris Peyton, chairman, Muriel Hendricks, Margaret Larkin, Lorraine Johnson; music - Doris Fredrick, chairman, Ruth Lobaugh, Eloise McIntyre; news letter - Rita DePew, chairman, Naomi French, Addie May Nixon.

Parliamentarian - Frances Ross; program - Dena Backes, chairman, Ruth O'Harra, Addie May Nixon, Olive Wilson, Lucille O'Neill, Doris Fredrick; public affairs - Ruth Ronie, chairman, Suzanne Hamilton, Polly Mann.

Public relations - Ruth King, Pernice Houck; radio and television - Clive Cornett; press book and publications - Bea Meade, Bertha Spencer; roster - Carol Sabo; service objectives - Carol Sabo, chairman, Alma Mullis, Josephine Robinson, Inez Kerron, Marion Poole, Alice Howard.

Service and social - Faye Drew, chairman, Frances Anderson, Catherine Brumbaugh, Marguerite Ward, Clara Shaw; United Nations - Rhoda Harnden, chairman, Hope Holbrook, Evelyn Cooper, Ida Ouell, Maude Goeliet; Venture Club - Vera Powell, chairman, Crystal Cloake.

A lighted Christmas tree and unusual holiday table arrangements backgrounded the luncheon. Ida Odell won the special award.

Birthday Party

LANGELL VALLEY - Mr. and Mrs. Howrey Roberts gave a dinner at their home December 4 in honor of the birthday anniversary of their son, Timmy, who was three years old.

A beautifully decorated cake was on the dinner table, and Timmy blew out three candles after the group sang "Happy Birthday" to him.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ritter, Marcia and Bruce of Hildebrand; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hankins, Marvin, Mike and Darrell, Bonanza and Joan Roberts.

Lamm, president of Soroptimist Club, the sponsoring organization for Venture Club; Vera Powell and Crystal Cloake, Soroptimist advisers and Mrs. Bert Johnson, mother of the organist.

For expert office machine repair, call Voight's School and Office Supply, 629 Main.

Advertisement for 'DANCE RED BARN Saturday Night' featuring '4 Turkeys Awarded' and 'YOU CAN WIN' with admission and donation information.

Advertisement for 'tense?' featuring a cartoon face and text about confusion and uncertainty, located at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Large advertisement for 'Your Christmas Check Buys more in FURS' featuring a woman in a fur coat and '3 DAYS ONLY' sale information for a $50,000 fur sale.

Advertisement for 'A and B Paint Store' located at 1229 E. Main, Sherwin-Williams Point Headquarters.