Dulles Leaves For Arms Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles leaves for Paris late Tuesday to seek ways of speeding final agreement on West German rearmament and to discuss Western defense plans.

He will be accompanied on the plane trip by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Administrator Harold E. Stassen of the Foreign Operations Administration.

Immediate purpose of Dulles' trip is to attend a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council opening Friday.

But Dulles has said he expects to discuss other matters with Britain's Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and France's Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

Dulles told his news conference last week he thought they might talk about Mendes-France's suggestion, made on his recent U.S. visit, to hold a Big Four meeting with Russia next spring, providing West Germany has been more closely integrated with Western defense and progress is shown to German reunification and an Austrian peace treaty.

Mendes-France expressed confidence that all parties to the Paris agreement, under which West Germany would be reformed as a sovereign member of NATO, would have ratified these accords by April, clearing the way for a possible Big Four meeting in May.

However, some opposition to the agreement has developed in the French Assembly and elections this month in Bavaria cut into West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's power in the German parliament, presaging a possible difficult time for the Paris accords.

Attorney Asks Trial Site Change

An attempt by the defense to shift the trials of James Quinton Anderson, 31-year-old Beatty rancher, held on charges of first degree murder and assault with intent to kill to Burns will be vigorously opposed by District Attorney Frank Alderson.

When Anderson appeared late Monday before Circuit Judge David E. Vandenberg to plead to the two charges, Defense Attorney Welch filed a motion for a change of venue contending his client could not obtain a fair trial in Klamath or Lake counties. He requested the case be sent to Burns.

Welch also filed half a dozen affidavits supporting his motion. District Attorney Alderson was granted until next Monday by Judge Vandenberg to file counter affidavits.

The defense also entered an exhibit in the case four issues of the Herald and News containing accounts of the arrest of Anderson. Welch explained after the court session that he presented the newspapers which circulated widely in Lake County to show that "indignatory statements" about Anderson had been published.

Anderson was arrested November 5 in a Beatty residence by State Policeman Larry Bergmann after a posse had surrounded the place.

Anderson is accused of the anonymous slaying of Richard David Miller, 25-year-old member of a wealthy farmer Tucson, Arizona family. Miller, according to Bergmann was shot with the victim's own gun a short time after he and Anderson had engaged in a fist fight.

Before he was fatally wounded, Miller is reported to have gone to his home near Beatty where he armed himself with a shotgun, pistol and knife. Witnesses said he later fired several shots in front of the Beatty residence where Anderson was attending the party.

Police reports state when the shots were fired, Anderson rushed from the house, wrestled a shotgun from Miller and shot him in the back.

The assault with intent to kill charge was filed against Anderson after he was alleged to have participated in a "night of terror" attack upon Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Stearns Jr. of Grants Pass. Last October, the Stearnses were waylaid by two men near Beatty and kept under almost constant gunfire for an entire night. Anderson pleaded innocent to both charges.

Weiser Rites Slated Tomorrow

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, December 15 the Beatty Methodist Church for Ralph Stewart Weiser, 26, whose tragic death followed a boxing bout December 10 in the armory. The Rev. Harley Zeller will officiate.

Young Weiser was a member of one of the most prominent families of historical fame on the reservation. His great-grandmother was "Toby" Winema Riddle, mediator between the Modocs and the U.S. Army forces during the Modoc War in the Lava Beds. His great grandfather was Jeff Thiede, who wrote the Indian version of the war years which has had wide distribution in the United States.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of Ward's Klamath Funeral Home.

Klamath 4-H Nominations Announced

Additional nominations for officers of the Klamath County 4-H Leaders Association were received in the business session which preceded the annual Christmas party Monday evening at Joan's Kitchen, fairgrounds.

Leaders will vote at the January meeting on the following slate of officers: president, Dale Fleming, incumbent; Mrs. Charles Thurman, additional nominee; vice president, Mrs. Charles DeLap, Mrs. George Reeling and additional nominees, Earl Wilson and Stanley Masten.

Secretary, Mrs. S. C. Masten and Mrs. Paul Hatchel, nominated Monday following withdrawal of Mrs. Fred Wolfrum and Elsie Schuch and Mrs. Gene Merrill.

Leaders present accepted a progress report on the proposed program for the year. Final details will be completed and the information, in handbook form, is expected to be available to all county leaders by February.

The group went on record as favoring a resolution submitted by Jackson County leaders association proposing that county agents be relieved of judging duties at state fair and P.I., and that other duties be delegated among all the county agents. The local action will be referred to the annual state leaders conference in Corvallis January 25, 26 and 27.

All Klamath County 4-H leaders and junior leaders who can be urged to attend this conference.

In other business, announcement was made of the 4-H Club officers training institute scheduled for Saturday, January 8, from 10 a.m. to 12 in Altamont School.

Gene Merrill, vice president of region five, reported on the recent regional conference.

Following the president's expression of appreciation to committees and officers for cooperation during the past year, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. M. W. Schrakoff, Pioneer Community, for entertainment and refreshments.

Program included June Ringler, Wocus, who sang a Christmas number with her own accordion accompaniment; Mrs. John Kerns reading a Christmas story; Ida Schrakoff, vocal soloist; Mrs. Joe Schuch led the group in group singing. Refreshments were served by Ken and Wocus leaders.

SENTENCES

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Egypt's military tribunal Tuesday cranked out 33 more sentences—including three death verdicts—a gain in members of the Muslim Brotherhood. One accused was acquitted. The government pressed the prosecution of leaders of the brotherhood's fanatical secret order on charges of plotting a terrorist revolution.

Police Hold Dawn Starr

Dawn Starr, alias Patricia Loraine McIntyre, ex-Hollywood starlet, who caused a sensation in Klamath Falls a year ago when she tendered a bogus check to pay for having her legs shaved in a local barber shop, is back in the toils of the law.

Sheriff Murray Britton was notified Tuesday by the California Bureau of Criminal Identification that Miss Starr is held in San Bernardino as a Dyer Act violator. She is accused by federal authorities of transporting a stolen automobile across a state line.

The former actress' sojourn in Klamath Falls was marked by a series of sensational court actions. The legal proceedings reached a climax when former State Senator Tom Mahoney flew here from Portland to free her from jail on a writ of habeas corpus.

At that time she was already on probation on the barbershop check charge and was being held for California on a similar complaint. Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg granted the habeas corpus hearing on grounds that California had failed to take proper steps within a reasonable time to extradite the girl.

Shortly afterward, Miss Starr obtained permission from the court to leave Oregon to visit relatives in Oklahoma City. In Oklahoma City she was arrested on a California warrant returned to Los Angeles for prosecution on a check charge. She was reported to have posed as a "girl friend" of actor Allan Ladd while passing spurious checks in Hollywood night spots.

While in the county jail, Miss Starr told a lurid story about her relationship to Belle Starr, colorful gunwoman of the Old West. The girl said Belle Starr was her great great-grandmother.

Survivors include the widow, Dixie Dixon of Plush; two sons, Cecil of Plush and Clayton of Astoria, Oregon; three daughters, Mrs. Lee Krake of North Bend, Mrs. Jack Emery of Ely, Nevada, and Mrs. Winnie Walters of Los Angeles, a brother, Cecil Dixon of Quincy, California; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Collins of Oakland, California; 10 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held from the Oleson-Osterman Funeral Chapel Thursday at 10:30 a.m. with final services and interment in Sunset Park at Lakeview.

Palibearis will be Gail Reynolds, George Cox, Ira Moore, Leslier Shaw, Lloyd Ogle and Chris Langlet.

Redding Police Catch Burglar

Solution to the burglarizing of the American Legion Club last week was solved Monday when Redding police arrested E. D. (Bud) Morrow, itinerant scenic painter, for petty theft.

When questioned by California officers the self-styled artist admitted to burglarizing the local club. About $64 in money was taken from a cigarette machine and liquor valued at $50 stolen.

Morrow waived extradition and will be returned to Klamath Falls by Sheriff Murray (Red) Britton today. He will face a charge of burglary not in a dwelling.

Former Tulelake Resident Dies

TULELAKE — A former well-known Tulelake resident, Harvey W. Wolfe, died at Chico, Wednesday, December 11. Death was attributed to pneumonia.

During the last years he lived here he was in charge of the seasonal office of the California State Employment Service. Mrs. Wolfe was employed in the California State Motor Vehicle office and was transferred to the Chico office.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe left here for the benefit of his health. He was a veteran of World War I and was a member of Tulelake Post, American Legion, No. 164.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Mabelle Wolfe; a daughter, Mrs. Harry (Jean) Rose of Tulelake; a brother, Miles O. Wolfe, Huntington Park, California; and a sister, Mrs. H. A. Scheidiger of Lower Lake, California.

Funeral services were held Saturday, December 11 from the Edward Holman and Son Funeral Home in Portland.

Death Claims Lake Resident

LAKEVIEW — Clarence Sylvester Dixon, who had been ill at Lakeview Hospital for a week, died this morning. He observed his 77th birthday anniversary last Thursday.

He was born at Myrtle Creek and had lived in Lake County since he was 7 years old. Most of his adult life was spent as a rancher around Adel and Plush.

Survivors include the widow, Dixie Dixon of Plush; two sons, Cecil of Plush and Clayton of Astoria, Oregon; three daughters, Mrs. Lee Krake of North Bend, Mrs. Jack Emery of Ely, Nevada, and Mrs. Winnie Walters of Los Angeles, a brother, Cecil Dixon of Quincy, California; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Collins of Oakland, California; 10 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held from the Oleson-Osterman Funeral Chapel Thursday at 10:30 a.m. with final services and interment in Sunset Park at Lakeview.
