

DOUBLE BOOT by Elizabeth Arden will solve the problem of several names on your Christmas list. These merry little jester boots of cyclamen and blue suede holds jewel-capped Per-fumair of Blue Grass and matching jumbo-size lipstick.

FRENCH ATOMIZER atop a four-ounce model bottle is a lovely gift to accompany her gift of perfume. Marcel Franck atomizers are completely manufactured in France and distributed by French Atomizer Corporation. There is no federal tax on atomizers.

BOTTLE COVER Fun for the youngster who has to be in bed for a few days because of illness is a gaily covered hot water bottle. Make it like a pillow case and fasten with a drawstring or tie a bright ribbon around the throat of the bottle. Choose a bright washable fabric—terry cloth is nice to the touch, so you can keep it pretty and sanitary with hot water and soap-suds.

INVITATION to beauty is offered you this hollytide by Tame Creme Rinse, an invisible hair dressing which conditions and protects the hair against wind and weather. It's an attractive beauty gift that promises easy-to-manage, soft and lustrous hair. Photo courtesy The Toni Company.

Sweetheart Gets Heir's Effects

CHICAGO (P)—The personal effects of Montgomery Ward Thorne, 22-year-old mail order heir who died last June under mysterious circumstances, have been turned over to his former sweetheart Maureen Ragen, 18. They included: water skis, a comic book, a jar of peanut butter, a first baseman's mitt, a pair of lady's high-heeled shoes, a bottle of mustard — and Miss Ragen's love letters. A contest for Thorne's $1,700,000 estate is on in Probate Court. In his first will, he left the bulk of the estate to his mother but a later will bequeathed most of it to Miss Ragen.
