

"Christmas Inspiration"

SILENT, SERENE AND SYMBOLIC of the Spirit of Christmas—the above arrangement by Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, 133 Grant Street, expresses with artistry, her "White Christmas" theme for this year's Yuletide decor. The Della Robbia wreath above the lighted white tapers is also predominately silver and white with only touches of natural evergreen for accent.

Further details on tea and Mrs. O'Connor's arrangements on inside page.

S
O
C
I
E
T
Y
By MILLY
RAMSBY

Holiday Tea

HOSTESSES . . . From the left, Mrs. Wesley Lorenz, Mrs. Glenn C. Lorenz and Mrs. Stanley Miller.

OVER 350 TEA GUESTS were ushered into a festive holiday setting, Friday, December 10, when hostesses, Mrs. Glenn C. Lorenz, Mrs. Wesley Lorenz and Mrs. Stanley Miller received during the afternoon hours from 2 to 6, at the Miller residence, 1530 Pacific Terrace. The arrangement on the mantel above, is characteristic of the distinctive decorations featured throughout the beautiful home. Seated by the fireplace, Mrs. Wendell Smith and Mrs. Mike Holland. Directly above, Mrs. O. K. Puckett and Mrs. Guy Hancock; and to right, Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm, pouring; standing (l to r), Mrs. Cecil Draw, Mrs. William Whelan and Mrs. Paul Dalton.

All pictures on page by Don Kettler