

LINDA WAS SIX... and she had a wonderful birthday anniversary party with grown-up friends, young friends and her family to share it with her. Since her birthday, December 12, is "just-about" holiday time, a Christmas party was indicated — and that's what it was — a Christmas-birthday-party "at home."

Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Whytal, and their charming home in Pine Flat was the festive setting. Our holiday hope is that the "other Lindas" in the world end the year as happily and start the new one with the peace and security "our Lindas" know in this country.

Top left, (l to r), Terry Milne, Sueana Whytal, sister of the celebrant; Linda, Dee Milne, Terry's brother; and in front with the balloon, Joe Padgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Padgett.
