"PUT THESE ON AND YOU'LL FEEL COOLER, DAD. THEY'VE BEEN IN THE 'FRIGERATOR' ALL AFTERNOON."

Former Veep Issues Blast At Chandler

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Sen. Alben W. Barkley, making a belated appearance in the Democratic primary fight, has accused A. B. (Happy) Chandler of costing him the presidency of the United States.

Barkley also challenged Chandler's fitness to run for governor on the party's ticket, claiming he frequently deserted the Democrats to support other candidates and other causes.

Returning to his home state from Washington last night, Barkley spoke in behalf of Bert T. Combs, who is battling Chandler for the gubernatorial nomination.

Kentucky holds its primary election tomorrow.

Barkley told a television audience he withdrew as a candidate for the presidential nomination during the party's 1952 national convention when some labor leaders refused to back him.

But, the former vice president added, Chandler was opposing him long before that.

"Chandler was occupying his time in the lobbies of hotels (at Chicago) urging delegates to vote against me and to vote for Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia."

"He even urged members of the Kentucky delegation to desert me," Barkley said. He reopened the issue because Chandler's forces were circulating a story that Sen. Earle Clements (D-Ky) and Gov. Lawrence Wetherby "pulled the rug out from under me" at the convention.

He said Chandler wasn't being honest with the public when he sought to create the "false impression that he was battling for me while Wetherby and Clements were sticking the dagger in my back."

During the convention, Chandler was asked about reports he was working for Russell instead of Barkley.

"I am instructed to vote for Barkley and I will vote for Barkley," Chandler replied, "but if anything happens to Barkley's candidacy, I will be for Russell and will try to swing the Kentucky delegation to him."

Chandler was unavailable for comment last night.

In reviewing Chandler's record as governor and U. S. Senator, Barkley caustically criticized him for leaving Congress in 1945 "when the lure of a $50,000 baseball salary was dangled before his eyes."

Barkley claimed the resignation opened the way for a Republican

Wakely Charged In Damage Suit

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—A $50,000 damage suit has been filed against Jimmy Wakely, singing and guitar-playing cowboy, by the mother of 18-year-old Anita R. Hayes, charging an attack "with force and violence."

Mrs. Thelma R. Hayes said the alleged attack occurred April 25 while Miss Hayes was "lawfully in Wakely's Hollywood office," that it was unprovoked, and that it caused serious injury and mental shock.

Wakely is away on tour.
