A HIGHLIGHT OF THE MIDSUMMER SOCIAL SEASON, was the tea given in the Pelican Party Room by Mrs. George A. Myers, 711 Pacific Terrace, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James L. Myers, Tulelake, Wednesday, July 27.

Over 100 guests invited during the hours from 3 to 5 p.m., were received in a setting bright with large arrangements of vari-colored gladioli and other summer flowers.

Guests from out of town included Mrs. William Campbell, who, with her husband, Dr. William Campbell, Stockton, was a houseguest at the Crystal Springs home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Sharp; and three former residents, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, Boise, Idaho; Mrs. T. R. Gillenwaters, Los Angeles and Grand Junction, Colorado; and Mrs. George Merryman, Kentfield, California.

MRS. GEORGE R. LINDLEY, mother of Mrs. George Myers, seated, is shown serving Mrs. Cecil B. Matt, left, Mrs. Guy Hancock, center, and Mrs. Hans Frei, who also poured during the afternoon.

Others assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Robert W. Harper (Nancy Humble), Portland; Mrs. William (Bill) D. Ganger, Mrs. Charles A. Boyden and Mrs. William Staunton, Tulelake; Mrs. Robert S. Bitroy, Malin; Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill, Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. John H. Houston, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Paul Sharp, Mrs. Carl Frei and Mrs. William R. Perrin.
