

MARJORIE (Margie) CLARK, summer visitor in Klamath Falls at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Clark, 2012 Main, was honored guest at a recent morning coffee pre-nuptial shower given at the home of Mrs. Dave Liskey, 1041 Eldorado.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Liskey were Mrs. Warren Bennet and Mrs. Liskey's daughter, Mrs. Bruce Wirth.

Roses were featured in floral arrangements about the room and three large wedding bells tied with white satin bows decorated the cart of miscellaneous shower gifts.

Jean Underwood presided at the coffee service. The large table was draped with an egg-shell linen cloth of solid cutwork embroidery . . . and roses were again the featured flower.

Margie, the dietician at Kadlec Hospital, Richland, is bride-elect of Patrick Sheeran, also Richland. The wedding will take place in Christ the King Catholic Church in that city, August 27.

Jack Richerson Claims Hanford Girl as Bride

Just about a half a year after their engagement was announced, Jack Richerson, former Klamath Falls resident, and Patricia Parson, Hanford, California high school honor student, were married early in July in the Armons Methodist Church in a candlelight ceremony, the Rev. C. C. Van Leer, officiant.

Richerson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess D. Richerson, and his father was best man. The Richersons left the Klamath Basin for Hanford, where they are farming.

The bridegroom's sister, Ruth Richerson, served as maid of honor. She was given in marriage by her stepfather, Allen Combs.

For her wedding, Patricia wore a white length gown with white eye-let nylon, designed with a long fitted torso. For the honeymoon trip (destination a secret), she wore a pink cotton dress with a low neckline, full skirt and white accessories.

She will continue her schooling this fall and Richerson will continue farming.
