

Cobbler Gives Up Crack At $64,000, Retires With $32,000 On Dad's Advice

NEW YORK (AP)—Shoemaker Gino Prato, still accustomed to following his father's advice at the age of 53, has taken his $32,000 and given up on The $64,000 Question. A cable from Papa Prato in Italy advised: "Stop where you are."

That's enough this way, Regards, Daddy. And that's what the Bronx cobbler, with the pleasing ways and amazing operatic lute, did last night.

Prato had taken a chance and lost, he would have received an expensive automobile as a consolation prize.

Under the policy of the show, the opera question Prato would have faced last night will remain a secret.

Prato in his studio remarks said a local radio station, WOV, recorded his voice and sent it to Italy for his father to hear in the small town of Stalate, near Genoa, and then brought back a recording of the father's voice for the cobbler to hear—for the first time in 33 years.

Prato said his biggest thrill was a visit from conductor Arturo Toscanini's daughter Mrs. Vladimir Horowitz, wife of the pianist. When Mrs. Horowitz congratulated Prato on his knowledge of the opera, the singers, composers and conductors, he told her: "Tell your daddy, as one Italian fellow to another, I can tell his

Boy Killed When Pistol Goes Off

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Two boys playing war with toy guns decided to take a look at a real one yesterday. It went off, killing James Wade Byram, 9.

Detective Sgt. P. K. Walk said the Byram boy, visiting here from Dallas, Tex., was playing with David Jones, also 9. Walk said young Byram asked the Jones boy if he had a real gun. This led them, the detective said, to a .45 calibre pistol in a desk drawer. It went off as they examined it.

CRACKDOWN

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A police crackdown on persons who have failed to pay traffic tickets brought 1,250 persons jamming into Corporation Court yesterday and Monday. Extra officers were placed on duty last weekend after a backlog of 4,000 tickets piled up.

US Officials Leery Over Korea Riots

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials watched with growing concern today lest anti-Red demonstrations in Korea lead to serious difficulty between South Korea and the United States.

A State Department press officer, Lincoln White, told newsmen yesterday this country intends to abide by its obligation to protect members of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission personnel, including Communists, in South Korea.

The truce supervision group is made up of representatives of Sweden, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia and Poland. Americans and South Koreans alike regard the Czechs and Poles as the eyes and ears of the Communists. They differ on what should be done.

The U.S. government favors a patient and gradual reduction of the commission's functions until it virtually ceases to exist. If other nations concerned would go along, the United States would be willing to abolish the group entirely. So far there has been no agreement to do so.

The South Korean government has told the commission to close up shop and get out of the country by Saturday. There have been demonstrations against the commission. Since Saturday 22 U.S. soldiers have been injured in carrying out the American determination to keep commission members from harm.

So far as relations between the South Korean and American governments are concerned, authorities here feel they can keep the situation under control. But authorities here think that if many more American soldiers are injured in protecting the commission, there will be a bad public reaction against South Korea in the United States.

This, as Washington experts see it, might take two forms—opposition to continuing heavy economic and military aid to South Korea and pressure to get American forces out of the country and back to Japan.

Newberg Aids Hoover Rites

NEWBERG, Ore. (AP)—This Willamette Valley town today helped Herbert Hoover celebrate his 81st birthday.

Hoover comes to Newberg, where he lived as a boy some 70 years ago, to speak at the dedication, as a national shrine, of the cottage which was his home.

The former President, spry and fashionable in a new straw hat, arrived by plane in Salem, 30 miles south of here last evening. He was 18 hours ahead of schedule because he wanted to get plenty of rest for the big day. There was no official reception in Salem because only a few friends knew he was arriving early.

As a boy, Hoover moved to Newberg after his parents' death to live with his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Henry R. Minthorn. The Minthorn cottage has been restored to its 1884 condition by the Herbert Hoover Foundation. Hoover will speak there.

The State Highway Commission planned official dedication of a new 25-mile stretch of the Pacific Highway between Portland and Newberg as Herbert Hoover Boulevard.

Hoover made the trip to Oregon with A. C. Mattel, a San Francisco oil executive and a long-time friend; Mrs. Mattel; and Bernice Miller, Hoover's secretary.

Hoover plans to leave after the ceremonies for his favorite fishing stream, the McKenzie River in southwestern Oregon.

Firemen Tackle Sweet Job On Tree

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Firemen here had a sweet assignment yesterday—but two of the smoke eaters got stung.

Fire Lt. E. L. Reuck told of the man who tried to remove a bee comb from a tree.

"He had cut a limb out in the section where the comb was located, about 40 feet up. Then the comb broke. It looked like nothing but a fire hose could wash up the mess. . . . Only a couple of the fellows were stung. The man got stung three times that I know of—but it didn't seem to bother him like seeing that honey all over the place."

DIVORCE

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Actor-Director Robert Montgomery's daughter, Elizabeth Montgomery Cammann, has obtained a divorce from Frederic G. Cammann of New York. Terms of a property settlement were not disclosed yesterday. She alleged cruelty and was granted restoration of her maiden name. They were wed in New York March 2, 1934, and have no children.

BOOST

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Beginning Tuesday, barbers say, youngsters and some adults will pay 25 cents more for flat-top and flat-top boogie haircuts here. Barbers Local Union 672 approved the increase last night. There will be no change in the price of regular haircuts, now $1.25.
