

Swim Tourney Slated Here

A summer swimming tournament is scheduled to be held at the Klamath Falls municipal pool August 26, that is, if a sponsor is secured.

Pool officials intend to invite swimmers from Bend, Ashland, Lakeview, Grants Pass and Redding for the tourney, which probably will include 29 events. Both boys and girls will compete in all age groups.

The local swimming team, coached by Dick Hicks, traveled to Bend last Sunday for a meet there with swimmers from seven other cities.

Joe Linnam, Danny Shaw and Felix Barnhiel made the trip. Linnam took fourth in the 80-yard freestyle for age group 17 and over, and Barnhiel won second in diving.

Hicks said that any swimmers in the area who are interested in competing in the upcoming tournament are invited to sign up. Practice is held daily at the pool from 5-7 p.m.

Homemakers Camp To Be Conducted

A homemakers camp at Lake of the Woods will be held for women of the Klamath Basin next Wednesday.

The camp will be held at Low Zehoes on the lake and will conclude the following Sunday. It will include boating, swimming, craft work, and other activities.

Any interested women in the basin are invited to attend. Information may be obtained from Mrs. Lee Holliday, phone 1917, or Mrs. Percy H. Cook, 4933.

Workshop To Be Held

Three Klamath Basin youths will attend a student council workshop at the University of Oregon next Sunday.

The five-day session is to be held in the Era Memorial Union Building, and is being conducted by the Oregon Association of Student Councils with the assistance of the School of Education at Oregon.

Terry Hanson of Klamath Union High School, and Larry Evers and Chris Lemler of Merrill will make the trip.

It is the first workshop of its kind in Oregon, and is designed to provide experience and develop techniques in group leadership for student council members and their sponsors.

Dr. Donald I. Wood, chairman of the advisory committee of the National Association of Student Councils, San Antonio, Texas, is consultant for the workshop. Some 125 Oregon high schools are expected to be represented.

Klamath Airman Completes Course

FIFTH AIR FORCE — Serving with the U. S. Air Force overseas, Airman Second Class David A. Moran, Klamath Falls, recently completed a specialist's course in aircraft maintenance at Johnson Air Base. With trained technicians necessary to service the complex aircraft in use today, the USAF has a series of schools throughout the world for specialized instruction.

Airman Moran is assigned to the 13th Bomb Squadron of the Third Bombardment Wing (L), a bomber unit engaged in the air defense of Japan. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moran, reside at 825 Martin Street.

Four Basin Men Enlist

Four Klamath Basin men have enlisted in the U. S. Air Force for four-year terms.

On August 1, Ronald E. Averett and Edward G. Rae enlisted and on August 4, Arlin L. Travis and Leonard D. Bowling signed up.

Averett, son of Robert Averett, 39 Main Street, is a former Klamath Union High School student; Rae, son of Mrs. Dorothy Flackus, 2210 Ogden Street, is a graduate of the 1955 class of Henley High School; Travis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Travis, P.O. Box 54, Malin, is a graduate in the 1953 class of Malin High School; and Bowling is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond N. Bowling, Merrill.
