

A TIE FOR ALL-ROUND cowboy honors resulted when a boy and a girl both won nine points in the Klamath Basin's first junior rodeo held August 7 at the fairgrounds. The rodeo sponsored by the Klamath Sheriff's Possee drew contestants from points outside the basin as well as local riders. A second trophy has been ordered. Hazel Jo Delamater, 15, left, was the girl winner. Others (l to r) are Fred Beymer, Klamath Falls, president of the posse, Mrs. Beymer, who did an outstanding job as secretary, and C. B. Simons, 14, boy winner. Hazel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Delamater, Midland. C. B. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne W. Simons, 2604 Autumn Avenue.

The men met during the filming of "The Indian Fighter" in May and June in the Smith Rocks and Benham Falls areas. Long furnished horses for the picture. Dunsmuir Cops Check Cases

DUNSMUIR — Dunsmuir police are investigating several acts of vandalism that occurred on Sunday and Monday nights. The most serious of these was the breaking of a plate glass store window of Mac's Market in north Dunsmuir on Monday night sometime between 10:30 and 2 a.m. A large stone, about 12 inches in circumference, was tossed into the store. Phone wires of a pay booth in the front of the store were also jerked loose. Robbery did not seem to be a motive as there were no losses evident. Vandals also made a large scratch across the back of a car belonging to Roscoe Kimble parked downtown Monday night. The convertible top of an automobile belonging to Joe Yancez was slashed in two places. A suit and a pair of slacks were stolen from the car. On Sunday night the elementary school bus was broken into. Two fire extinguishers were taken and the gear shift bar was badly bent, according to Dunsmuir police.
