

MRS. BERTHA BEAN
90 Year Old Good Neighbor

90th Birthday Anniversary Marks 60 Years In County

Mrs. Bertha Bean celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary on Monday, August 1, when 25 neighbors and friends gathered at her present home in Tulelake for the afternoon.

The date also marked her 60th year as a resident of Klamath County, where she has surely earned the title "Basin Builder."

She came to Bonanza in 1895 from Brownwood, Texas, with her three small children, L. J. (Lee) Bean, 223 No. 5th Street; Leona, (Mrs. Joe) Sasser, Tulelake; and the late Louis Bean, Leona's twin brother.

Her life has been one of continuous service to others — "Beattie" as she is known to her countless friends has endeared herself to all as the "good neighbor" who was always there when needed. She is remembered by many members of old families as the "helping hand" through any emergency including illness, death and grief.

She helped to organize the Community Church in Bonanza; and was identified with many civic improvement projects while residing in her own family. At 90, she still does embroidery and crochet work. In fact, she just recently finished an embroidered quilt for her great-granddaughter, Linda Sasser, one of her 10, Judy Nelson, another great-grandchild, was recently here from Racine, Wisconsin. She has five grandchildren.

Although she spends most of her time with her daughter, Leona Sasser and her family in Tulelake, Mrs. Bean keeps up her contacts with old Bonanza and other Basin friends. To them and all who meet her, she is always an inspiration.

Micaela Peterson Weds Robert Wayne Sutphin on 7th

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Fred Peterson, for whom the local Peterson School was named, Micaela Kaye (Mike) Peterson became the bride of Robert Wayne (Bob) Sutphin last Sunday in Church of the Brethren.

Over 100 guests witnessed the double-ring nuptial service read by the Rev. Edward Lander at 2 p.m., which united in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Peterson, Ephrata, Washington; and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sutphin, Quincy, Washington.

Maid of honor was Barbara Gail Hunter; and bridesmaids were Roberta Mathews and Helen Detroit. Flower girl was Barbara Rush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rush. All attendants wore dresses identical in style.

Wayne Singleton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man, and ushering were Paul Bilant and Dale Olson.

Vocal soloist, Mrs. William Rush was accompanied by Mrs. Ivan Riffey.

The attractive bride was gowned in a waist length dress of Chantilly lace and nylon net. The skirt was designed with three graduated tiers — two of net topped with one of the lace. The shrug bolero of lace was made with above-the-elbow sleeves and a stand-up collar.

A demure half-bonnet of seed pearl trimmed net held the tiered Chantilly lace edged veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Attendants' dresses were waist length in princess style of net and silk. The maid of honor's was in yellow — and she wore a headband of matching net. The bridesmaids and flower girl wore in pastel blue with matching headbands. The senior attendants all carried blue and yellow bouquets. The flower girl carried a white satin basket.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Candelights reflected in the cut glass and silver on the laced draped table was the effective setting for the wedding cake which was served by Mrs. Dave Campbell and Mrs. Jess Angel after the bride and bridegroom had cut the traditional first slice.

Mrs. Jess Drew and Mrs. Charles Drew presided at the coffee service. Barbara Campbell and Jan Singleton of Quincy, Washington, served punch; Mrs. Ralph Hunter was at the gift table and Jo Campbell, cousin of the bride, carried the guest book.

The bride has recently been living with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson, 1559 Summers Lane, who have been well-known residents of the Klamath Basin for many years — prominently identified with the cultural, church, civic and social life in the community.

Mike is a graduate of Ephrata High School and is a member of Job's Daughters; and Bob, a graduate of Quincy High School, is a member of a Quincy, Washington ranching family. After their honeymoon along the Oregon Coast with a week at Seaside, they will be at home near Quincy, where he will continue with his ranching. For travel, the new Mrs. Sutphin wore a navy shantung suit, a small navy hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was an orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sutphin, parents of the bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Singleton, all from Washington. Mrs. Singleton is Bob's sister.

MRS. ARTHUR COLE, visiting here from Salem, second from the left, was honored guest at a bridge luncheon in the Pelican Party Room, August 4. With her in the picture, from the left, are, Mrs. Carol Howe, Mrs. Harold DeHlinger, Mrs. Glenn DeHlinger and Mrs. S. P. DeHlinger. During her recent stay she is houseguest of Mrs. Howe.

The picture was taken shortly before the luncheon for 20. High score in bridge went to Mrs. Jack Weimer; traveling, Mrs. Howe; and low, Mrs. Irwin Campbell.

WOM-Chapter Night

AGNES NELSON
Alumni Chairman WOM

Agnes Nelson, Mooseheart Alumnae chairman, women of the Moose Chapter No. 457 held her chapter night program at the Moose Hall, 1014 Pine Street, Tuesday, August 2. The Alumnae is an association consisting of a revolving fund to aid Mooseheart high school graduates to further education.

The regular initiation meeting was called to order by senior regent, Hazel Pulley who turned the gavel over to Mrs. Nelson to continue her program. She introduced three talented and versatile young musicians, Jean, Joe and Von, children of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bishop Jr. They all interchanged playing the piano, violin and the flute. Following the musical program, the youngsters appeared in a tumbling act.

A four piece dance band was then introduced by Mrs. Nelson, Dave Landis, at the piano; Jerry Barker, clarinet; Eddie Busby, string bass and Stewart Campbell, on the drums. After the program, Mrs. Nelson was called to the altar by the senior regent and presented with a gift a token of appreciation from the chapter for her program.

Candidates initiated in honor of the alumnae committee were: Anne Mullin, Elizabeth Poppe, Gladys Kieffer and Betty Jane Cool. Their sponsors listed in same order were Agnes Nelson, Irene Hamel, Nancy Yancy and Jean Young.

Women of the Moose Klamath Falls chapter 467 elected and installed Patricia M. Husock as chaplain to serve the ensuing year, at the regular meeting held at Moose Hall Tuesday August 2.

The regular chaplain, Margaret Wirtz, installed at the formal initiation of June 29, resigned because of illness in her family.

Graduate Regent Erma GeRue served as installing officer for the new chaplain, Lorene Raasmussen served as installing officer.

The guests of honor are moving to Seaside in the near future. He has been with the Southern Pacific and Mrs. Vandeventer is a former teacher in the Weed High School.

Pastel Setting for Wedding In First Methodist Church

Over 200 guests assembled at the First Methodist Church last Saturday to witness the 12:30 p.m. exchange of nuptial vows, when Bonnie Jo O'Harra became the bride of Elmer M. Hamilton. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Harra, 2325 Garden; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. Al Kittock, Medford; and Elmer Hamilton, 104 High Street.

Pale yellow and white gladioli, palms and lighted tapers in candelabra decorated the altar and the pews were also marked with small arrangements of gladioli.

The Rev. Dallas McNeil officiated at the ceremony. Organist was Douglas Cunningham; and Margaret Scholer was vocal soloist for the wedding.

The four senior bride's attendants wore dresses identical in style. Maid of honor, Patricia Kay O'Harra, bride's sister, wore yellow, low crystalline, off the shoulder neckline, made with a long torso and full skirt. She wore a half hat of yellow net and velvet and carried an arm bouquet of aqua painted daisies.

The bridesmaids, Marcia Belshaw, bride's cousin from Mt. Vernon, Oregon; Hazel Schieferstein, former classmate, Klamath Falls; and Jan Ailig, sorority sister, St. Helena, Oregon, all wore aqua dresses and hats, and carried bouquets of yellow painted daisies.

Kathy O'Harra, little cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Harra, Ashland, was flower girl. She wore a white net over matching tulle off the shoulder dress with a full skirt. Her hat was of white net with aqua and yellow ribbon trim.

In this pastel setting, Bonnie was lovely in her white French embroidered nylon lace and tulle dress designed with an instep length four tiered ruffled skirt and fitted jacket with long pointed sleeves. The exquisite gown was complemented with a coronet of seed pearls and iridescent sequins which held her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow threated orchids, stephanotis and bouvardia tied with white satin streamers.

She was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. Best man, was the bridegroom's father, Elmer Hamilton. Tim O'Harra, bride's brother; Joe Riegersson and Robert Starrett ushered.

The reception was in the church parlors, which were decorated in the same color scheme and flowers. Mrs. Richard Melling and Mrs. Charles Williamson, bride's aunts, served the cake; Mrs. Russell Belshaw, aunt, poured; Mrs. Charles Belshaw and Mrs. Virgil Belshaw, also aunts, presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Fred Baker, bridegroom's sister, carried the guest book; Mrs. John Schubert and Mrs. Harry Graham assisted about the room. Mrs. O'Harra received in a toast nylon lace afternoon dress with beige and bronze accessories. She wore a yellow and bronze orchid corsage. Mrs. Kittock was in a pale beige lace with matching accessories and her corsage was the same as Mrs. O'Harra's.

For the honeymoon trip to Las Vegas and Lake Tahoe Bonnie wore a charcoal two piece dress with matching velvet hat and pink accessories. The orchid from her bridal bouquet was her shoulder corsage.

Bonnie is a graduate of KUHS Class of '52, where she sang for four years with the a cappella choir. She was a student at Oregon State for two years where she was a member of Chorlisters and Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Hamilton was graduated from KUHS in 1949 and served two years in the Marine Corps.

They will be at home in Eureka after August 20.

Pre-nuptial social events included a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. John Schubert and Hazel Schieferstein in the Elk's Pine Room, July 29, and the rehearsal dinner given by the bride's parents at the Log Cabin.

Family members from out of town included Mrs. Charles Applegate, bride's grandmother, Medford; Mrs. Frances Dollard, bridegroom's grandmother, Pollock Pines, California; Mr. and Mrs. Milo P. O'Harra, Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Harra, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williamson, Roseburg; Mrs. and Mrs. Richard Neilson; Mr. and Mrs. Vern Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Perl Bateman, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tuman, Eureka; Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Belshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Belshaw, Mt. Vernon, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wissenfuh, Long Creek, Oregon; and Jane Glover, Vallejo. From North Bend were O'Harra family friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham.
