The bride's dress was white antique tulle with a nylon sheer overskirt in ballerina length. Her fingertip veil was held by a pearl covered velveteen headband and she carried a white Bible and a white orchid bouquet.

Organist for the ceremony, which was read by candlelight, was Mrs. Robert Brown. Sylvia Johnson, sister of the bride, sang three songs: "You'll Never Walk Alone," "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."
