

PLATE GLASS can be used to "create" new furniture as well as protect or renew furniture you have. Here two filing cabinets can be turned into an attractive desk with a rectangle of plate glass. Photo courtesy Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company.

Hamburger Rice Pie

1/4 cup butter
1-1 1/2 cups packaged pre-cooked rice
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup chopped onions
1 bouillon cube
2 2-3 cups water
1 teaspoon sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
2 cups (2 8-ounce cans) tomato sauce
1 pound ground beef
1/2 cup dry bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese
Melt butter in skillet. Add rice, green pepper, and 1/2 cup of the onions. Saute over medium heat until rice is lightly browned, stirring constantly. Then add bouillon cube, water, sugar, 1/2 teaspoon of the salt, and 1-1 1/2 cups of the tomato sauce. Mix lightly with a fork. Cover; simmer 15 minutes. Meanwhile, combine ground beef, bread crumbs, pepper and remaining onions, salt, and tomato sauce. Mix well. Press firmly on bottom and sides of greased 9-inch pan. Turn rice mixture into meat pie shell. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 25 minutes, or until meat is done. Cut in wedges to serve. Makes 6 servings.

HERE'S a perfect blend of flavors with a fluffy rice topping (using the packaged, pre-cooked variety). Called Hamburger Rice Pie, it is quick and easy to make, baking in the oven while you prepare the rest of the meal. Serve it with crisp salad, add a favorite dessert and you have a full meal. This type of dish is particularly appropriate for that Saturday afternoon when the crowd comes in to watch (or listen to) the pro football game that is being played, because it allows the hostess to enjoy her own party, too. Triple-Purpose Refill Package

A new triple-purpose refill package provides the big beauty news today for millions of feminine America's combination powder-make-up users. For the first time since its seasonally successful debut two years ago, Max Factor's popular Creme Puff Make-Up is being introduced in a handsome aqua-metal case in refill form that can be used by itself or as a replacement for the smart plastic and de luxe golden tone compacts. Complete with a velvet puff, the new Creme Puff refill is small and flat enough to slip into the pocket of a jacket, or a handbag, it can be carried as easily as the Creme Puff compact. According to Max Factor, the refill package is being made available because of the tremendous response from present users of the make-up, who wanted a nominally priced refill for their compacts, as well as from those who wanted to enjoy the exceptional beauty-bringing merits of this quick, easy-to-use make-up if it could be made available to them at a price within their means. Creme Puff, of course, has lit-

Light 'n Gay (very fair), Truly Fair (fair), Tempting Touch (natural), Gandle Glow (medium), Gay Whisper (deep natural), Twilight Blush (medium rose), Sun Frolic (tan), and Sun Goddess (deep tan). Now, in its new refill package, Creme Puff, more than ever, is the simple answer to the need for a complete make-up-in-minutes that will be with you wherever you are.

GLASS TOPS

Tops of polished plate glass will add years to the youthful look of fine furniture and old or marred furniture can be made to look new again with tops of opaque, pattern or colored plate glass. A glass top on a table, desk or vanity brings out the fine grain of the wood and protects it from everyday hazards like cigarette burns, spilled cosmetics or ink and accidental nicks and scratches. To rejuvenate a scuffed top, try using a cover of colorful Vitrolite-opaque glass, patterned glass, colored plate glass or a mirror. Another suggestion to renew the life of a scuffed desk or table top is to place a piece of wall paper with the same pattern as that used on the wall, under the glass top. A rippling fluid look which is very interesting can be given to the pattern in the wall paper by using a top made of patterned glass. In addition to adding years to the life of furniture, the glass tops make maintenance easier, doing away with the need for frequent waxing and polishing. It's easy to make a pattern of your furniture from which a glass dealer can cut a glass top. Just place a large sheet of smooth wrapping paper over the top to be measured; hold firmly in place, and crease all around the edges with the flat side of a ruler. Cut the pattern to exact size and shape. After cutting, lay the pattern on top to be sure it matches perfectly.
