

Red Students May Leave U.S. At Will

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials said today there probably are about 40 Chinese former students still in this country who want to return to Communist China.

But they emphasized that, unlike the 41 Americans held in Red China, the students here are free to leave at any time they wish.

The student issue has been raised by Red China in ambassadorial negotiations at Geneva, where the United States is seeking freedom for Chinese-held Americans.

Officials said they have no exact records even on the number of students still here, much less on their reasons for not leaving. Although some of them once were under restrictions, all have been free to leave since April 8.

Officials say that past experience with the student groups suggests a number of explanations for their remaining: some may not be able to afford a passage back to a law which permitted the payment of their fares expired June 30; some may still be working under contracts which still have some time to run; there may be health considerations in some cases.

The students are not under surveillance and are free to make their own living and departure arrangements. They, like other resident aliens, must check in periodically with the immigration service, but no central file is kept on their activities.

Officials estimate there are still in the United States about 4,500 Chinese who came to this country originally as students. Some are still students, others have found jobs, some have become citizens.

Most preferred to remain, but 124 who wanted to return after the Communists took over were restricted after Red China entered the Korean War. This government refused them exit permits on the ground that special skills they had acquired here might be used against U.S. and U.N. forces fighting in Korea.

Only 78 of this 124 still wanted to return on April 8, when all restrictions were lifted.

No records have been kept since then, but officials say they think about half these students have gone home.

U.N. Demands Fliers Return

MINNAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—The U.N. Commission tonight called an urgent meeting of the Military Armistice Commission to demand the return of the pilot and passenger of a U.S. training plane shot down by the Communists Wednesday.

The meeting was called for 10 a.m. Saturday (8 p.m. Friday, EST).

The Communists did not immediately reply.

There was still no information on whether the pilot and passenger in the T-28 trainer survived the crash.

The wording of the U.N. request for the commission session seemed to indicate official belief the pair may be alive. They are officially listed as missing. Names have been withheld.

The small, unarmed craft was caught in a barrage of heavy Communist anti-aircraft fire when it inadvertently flew into the United Nations side of the demilitarized zone Wednesday.

Habeas Corpus For Bell Slated

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A writ of habeas corpus will be filed for Otto G. Bell, 27, one of three turncoats who changed their minds and returned from Communist China.

Bell's attorney said yesterday.

Att. Robert E. Hannon said he will contend that the Army lacks jurisdiction over Bell, who was dishonorably discharged when he refused to be repatriated from a North Korean prison camp.

Hannon will argue that the case should be tried in a civil court.

Bell is charged by the Army with misconduct as a prisoner of war, aiding the enemy, conspiring to solicit a desertion and soliciting a desertion. He is held at Ft. Baker along with his two codefendants, William C. Cowry, 22, Monticello, Ark., and Lewis W. Griggs, 22, Jacksonville, Tex.

Bell formerly lived in Hillsboro, Miss., and Olympia, Wash.

Days Of Dillinger Recalled By Manhunt For Cop Killer

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's greatest manhunt since the days of gangster John Dillinger ended last night with a 26-year-old cop killer begging: "Don't shoot, Don't shoot."

Despite the plea, ex-convict Richard Carpenter fought his captors to the end, though unarmed. He wrestled with policemen who dragged him out of a tear-gas-filled third-floor apartment.

"No doubt about it. He was driven out by tear gas. The apartment was just loaded with it," said Detective Elwood Zuley, 40, one of the first policemen to grab Carpenter.

Zuley said the fugitive, who within a 72-hour period killed one policeman, critically wounded another and terrorized a family for 23 hours, made an apparent gesture of surrender by sticking both hands out through an open door.

The detective said he grabbed one outstretched hand. Patrolman John Kennedy, 54, grabbed the other. Together they yanked Carpenter into a narrow hallway.

The two policemen, aided by several other officers, wrestled Carpenter to the floor to escape a steady stream of gunfire and tear gas shells pouring into the apartment. No gun of Carpenter's was found in the apartment.

Kennedy said the slightly built gunman, described by his mother as harboring a passionate hatred for policemen, battled fiercely when handcuffed. Carpenter was not wounded by police bullets.

But, said Zuley, Carpenter kept pleading: "Don't shoot. Don't shoot."

"Of course," Zuley added, "no one shot."

Carpenter was quickly hustled into a squad car under heavy guard and taken to the nearby North Avenue police station. Milling crowds shouted "Kill him" as he was taken to the lockup.

He was captured just a block north of the Biltmore Theater where, on Wednesday night, he had critically wounded policeman Clarence Kerr, 26, in a gun duel. Kerr suffered a lung wound while Carpenter suffered a bullet wound in his right thigh.

Kerr had tried to arrest him for the slaying, some 50 hours earlier, of Detective William Murphy, 34, in a subway station. Police said Carpenter admitted slaying Murphy, who had arrested him on a subway train. The young gunman was wanted in connection with a series of robberies.

After shooting Kerr, Carpenter fled the theater safely and ran a block to 3400 Holman Ave. There, he forced himself into the second-floor apartment of Leonard Powell, 31, a truck driver. Powell's wife Stella, 30, and their children, Robert, 7, and Diane, 3, were present.

Powell quoted the intruder as saying: "I'm Carpenter. I just shot a policeman in the Biltmore Theater. You've got to hide me."

From Wednesday night until his capture 20 hours later, Powell and Carpenter kept his family virtual prisoners. He permitted Powell to go to work yesterday so as not to arouse suspicion.

"He acted like a little God," said Mrs. Powell, recalling the experience. "He was nervous at first. But when he calmed down he began to brag of how he killed one policeman and wounded another. He said he was smarter than they were."

Carpenter's determination not to arouse neighbors' suspicions proved to be his eventual undoing. Their captor, Powell said, allowed the children to go out and play last night and he also permitted Mrs. Powell to sit on the front steps of the apartment building, as was her custom. Once his wife was outside, Powell continued, he naked Carpenter if he might join her. He said it might arouse neighbors' suspicions otherwise.

One outside, Powell huddled with his wife momentarily and decided on a plan. She took the children and moved out of gun range from the apartment window. Powell scooted out of range also.

Fund-Raising Drives Scored

BALTIMORE (AP)—Fund-raising gimmicks of many churches—rummage sales, bingo, even the traditional chicken suppers—were given a lambasting at a church meeting here today.

Darrell K. Smith told the Chesapeake conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, "nowhere in Holy Scriptures do we find a command or entreaty for the conduct of rummage sales, chicken suppers, white elephant sales, bingo or lottery games to keep up the finances of the Christian church."

Smith, pastor of the Adventist church of Laurel, Md., said, "God has a plan in times and free-will offerings that if allowed would fully meet all the costs of evangelism, church and ministerial expenses.

"The great need today is for church members to get their thinking straight in regard to the financing of the church."

Tithing, Smith said, is more than merely giving 10 per cent or more of wages for church purposes. "The primary purpose of tithing in God's plan is not only to raise funds, he said, "but to build and enrich character."
