KF Resident's Mother Dies

Mrs. Gertrude Irene Goodfellow, 84, a guest in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Buck, Wocuc, died last night following a brief illness. Death apparently followed a heart attack. A memorial service will be held at 4:30 p.m. today in St. Paul's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Galen Ostad officiating. Final rites will be held Monday, August 22, from the Golden Funeral Home, Salem. Mrs. Goodfellow had visited here many times and had a host of friends in Klamath Falls. She was a native of Illinois and had made her home in Salem for 66 years. She had been with Mrs. Buck and her family for only three days when stricken. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Buck, Klamath Falls and Mrs. Bob Drager, Salem; a son, Robert Goodfellow, Portland; a sister, Mrs. June Taylor, Ukiah, California; a brother, Dr. Ed Gray, Eugene, and four grandchildren. Funeral arrangements here are in charge of Ward's Klamath Funeral Home.

Faber Speaks To KF Lions

Everett Faber, vice president of KBES-TV, Medford guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Klamath Falls Lions Club on August 16, gave an informative talk on the use of electronic devices in the operation of a television station. He also discussed the proposed site at Soda Mountain for a higher antenna for KBES-TV which will provide a Class A signal and improved television reception for Klamath Falls residents. The petition for the Medford television station to change site of operation is still pending, the speaker said. A hearing on the proposal is expected in the near future. He illustrated his talk with maps and outlines of the area the proposed site would cover. Floyd Wynne, commercial manager of KFLW, was program chairman.

Truck Driver Faces Charge

Vernon J. Haynes, 43-year-old Roseburg truck driver, was held in the county jail here Friday on a non-support charge. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Dale Mattoon on a warrant issued in Douglas County. Douglas County Sheriff Ira C. Byrd said he would send deputies to Klamath Falls Friday afternoon to take custody of Haynes.

Play Program To End In KF

The city recreation supervised play program which was started June 20 in the city parks will end today with the exception of Kiwanis Park where a part time staff will continue for the next two weeks. Kiwanis and Fairview parks had full time recreation program during the summer. Half time recreation was supervised at Stukel and Roosevelt parks. The tennis program will be completed next week with three tournaments at Moore Park. Registrations for the final swim classes at the municipal swimming pool which will be started Monday will be taken Sunday and Monday, August 21-22. The classes will last two weeks.

Youths Held For Eugene Home

Two boys, 14 and 15, who escaped from the Skipworth Juvenile Home in Eugene and fled to Lakeview in a stolen automobile, were turned over to the Klamath County juvenile officers Friday. Juvenile Officer Faye Blackmer said the boys were brought to Klamath Falls by state police who arrested them in Lakeview. They will be held at the juvenile home here until authorities from Eugene take them into custody.

Baby Sitters Report Prowler

City police Thursday night investigated a report a prowler was about the Robert Turber residence 1510 Worden Avenue. Baby sitters Sharon Rowe, 15, and Sharon Spangler, 15, told police about 9:15 p.m. they believed they heard someone try to open a screen door several times. Police found no tracks or other evidence after investigation.

Little Stock Show Planned In Malin

MALIN—The annual Little International Stock Show will be held Saturday, August 20, starting at 10 a.m. on the Malin school grounds. The Malin Chamber of Commerce is sponsor. The Malin Sheep Club will display classes of showmanship featuring lambs; steers will be shown by both 4-H Club and PFA boys. The public is invited to the annual show.

Service Station Theft Reported

Sixty dollars was stolen from the cash register of a service station at Allamont Drive and South Sixth Street Thursday. George Randle, manager of the station, reported to state police. He discovered the drawer open and the cash missing after he had been working in the rear of the station for a few minutes. He reported a man had inquired of him while he was out of the station regarding the location of a certain article. He said he was the only person he knew of who was about the station during the time the manager was in the rear. Police are investigating.
