Bride-to-be Feted With Luncheon At Winema

Kathleen O'Keefe, daughter of James O'Keefe, well-known Merrill rancher, was feted at a pre-nuptial luncheon Thursday, August 11, at the Winema Hotel. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Hugh Falvey, Mrs. Jerry Ahern, and Mrs. Dan Cashman, all of Merrill.

The honoree will be married Saturday, August 20, at a Nuptial Mass in St. Augustine's Church, Merrill, to Thomas Quiniski of Klamath Falls.

Luncheon was served from a table centered with an arrangement of pastel colored chrysanthemums and lilies.

Guests included Breda O'Keefe, cousin of the bride-elect; Mrs. Maurice O'Keefe, her aunt; Mrs. John Burke, Mrs. Dan Barry, Mrs. Ellis Wilson, Mrs. John Brynleson and Eileen Noonan, Merrill; Betty Mae Hammond, Mrs. Pat Hammond, Mrs. Dale Walker, Dorris Ella Beardsley, Mrs. Arthur Landmark, Mrs. Wilbur Welch, Mrs. Joe Quiniski, Marliou and Patti O'Connor, Klamath Falls; Mrs. John Moran, San Francisco; Mary Ellen Yost, Tulelake; and Mrs. Barry O'Connor, Newell. Invited also were Pat Heiland of Lakeview and Mrs. John Dean, Newell.

Hart-Anderson Vows Exchanged

LAKEVIEW—In the presence of their families on Sunday afternoon, August 14, Mrs. Helen Van Rheen Anderson, daughter of Mrs. James A. Van Rheen, Medford, was married to Frank P. Hart, son of Mrs. V. A. Hart, Lakeview.

The Rev. C. W. Julier read the double-ring ceremony in front of the fireplace in Mrs. Anderson's living room.

The bride wore an ice blue wall-to-wall dress made with a full nylon net skirt and a bodice of re-embroidered Chantilly lace sprinkled with rhinestones. Her headpiece was of lace and rhinestones and she carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Richard L. Evans of Burnt Ranch, California, and Gerald Leyva of Lexington, Oregon, were attendants.

A reception from 3 until 6 p.m. followed the ceremony with Mrs. Glenn Smith, Mrs. Don Maxwell and Mrs. Walter Bowne of Burnt Ranch acting as hostesses. Mrs. S. H. Sawyer and Mrs. Charles Pitscher presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Lewis Cozzolin and Mrs. William Shannon served coffee. Cutting the cake was Naomi Hart, sister of the bridegroom, who was assisted by Mrs. Gloria Ray, Melva Jean and Janice Lee Anderson, daughters of the bride, assisted by Judy Kay Evans, carried the guest book.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. James Van Rheen, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pauler and two children of Fresno; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Van Rheen and two children, Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Van Rheen, Portland, mother, sister and brothers of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Leyva, Lexington, Oregon.

The couple left after the reception for a wedding trip at Lake Tahoe and will make their home at Goldmoor Terrace in Lakeview.

BIRTHDAY DINNER
LANGSELL VALLEY — Mrs. Bill Burnett entertained with a dinner at her home on August 10, in honor of Mrs. Lester Leavitt's birthday. Eleven year old Monte Burnett made and decorated the delicious birthday cake. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weimer, Maria, Monte, Richard and Bill Burnett and Lester Leavitt.

EVEN THE BABY gives all of her attention to a little family lesson in the rudiments of croquet. Instructor is Cyril L. (Cy) Palmer, local manager for United Air Lines, and his interested audience is, from the left, Mrs. Palmer, their daughter, Patti (Mrs. John F.) Tenvold, holding six months old daughter, Lindsey Ann; and young Peter Linton, two and one-half, held by his father, John Tenvold.

John Tenvold, an insurance broker in Palo Alto, took a brief week off to drive his family to Klamath Falls for a visit with the children's Grandparents Palmer. Picture was taken at the Palmers' temporary quarters, 4506 Laverne.

The Tenvolds left last Tuesday, and Mrs. Palmer leaves Wednesday for Palo Alto for a few days' visit with them, before Cy Palmer joins her next weekend when they will leave for a month's vacation in the east. Much of their time will be spent in Toledo, Ohio, with Mrs. Palmer's relatives; and his sister in Kansas City. Tentative plans include a side-joint to Louisiana.

Mrs. Tenvold was also with United Air Lines for five years as stewardess before her marriage, and after her graduation from Stephens College and nearly two years at University of Toledo, Ohio.
