Put Color To Work!

"What color shall I paint my living room walls?" We are asked this question over and over again. There is no pat answer for every room and every family is different. A good rule to follow is: Use colors that will give you the effect you wish to achieve. If you wish a quiet, restful effect, you'll do well to choose a cool pale tone . . . a soft green or one of the blue shades. These are cool colors and are particularly good in rooms with sunny exposures. In North rooms which are usually sunless warmer tones, like yellow, light tan, pinkish bisque and champagne will introduce a feeling of sunniness. Keep in mind that dark furniture shows up to better advantage when placed against light walls.

The pleasant balance of pattern and plain color has been emphasized by the use of light background colors in the room sketched. delicate pastels to deep dramatic tones. Available in velvet wall finish, semi and high gloss enamels. Choose yours today!

"THE SAND AND THE SEA" was the theme chosen by the seven hostesses for the dance at Reames August 11.

Mythical King Neptune and fetching incredible mermaids of his realm floated on the walls with a colorful assortment of equally incredible fish.

Punch and cookies were served throughout the evening to the enthusiastic crowd who had "just gotten started dancing" when the chaperones made a final and successful attempt at "lights out." Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Larkin, Mr. and Mrs. Scott McKendree and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Greene were parent-guests of the hostesses.
