Police Believe Detroit's 'Shovel Burglar' Caught

DETROIT (AP)—After a five-year hunt, police believe they have caught Detroit's "Shovel Burglar." Officers say he is William E. Schiltz, 44, a fast-talking plumbing salesman who has served four terms in Southern Michigan Prison. They said he supplemented his $100 weekly income as a salesman by looting homes of between $10,000 and $15,000 a year. For five years the Shovel Burglar's routine never varied. He operated only on Friday nights between sunset and 9 p.m., taking a "vacation" between May and September and during the deer hunting season. He stole only from fashionable neighborhoods in Detroit's Northwest Side.

Lake Swim Course Held

The first organized course of instruction in swimming in the Crescent Lake area was completed this month, under the sponsorship of the local Red Cross chapter. Classes were given in beginning, intermediate and swimmers classes. Instructor was Joanne DeMerritt of Malin, authorized Red Cross instructor, assisted by Nancy DeMerritt, Water Safety Aide, Mrs. Virginia Meisner of Cascade Summit recruited the students for the class. The instruction met a need for water safety instruction in a community bordering on both Crescent and Odell lakes. Twenty-four children enrolled as beginners; 12 registered for intermediate swim instruction, and five completed the swimmers' course. Classes were held at the Crescent Lake resort beach. There was no charge for the classes, and cost of the project was born by the local Red Cross chapter.

Flower School Plans Announced

Dates for the fourth course of the Oregon State flower show school to be held in the city library are August 29-30-31. Registrations which are open to the public will start at 9 a.m. daily and be resumed at 1 p.m. Instructions will be given on the first two days by Mrs. Franz Neumann, Mercer, Island, Washington, on flower arrangements and by Mrs. D. C. Mahoney, Bend, who will talk on bulbs, glads and chrysanthemums. The third day will be taken up with examinations. Mrs. Scott McKendree, Klamath Falls, is general chairman of the school.

HOME LOOTED
NEW YORK (AP)—The home of Brooklyn Lin. Atty. Edward S. Silver was looted yesterday of $11,200 worth of jewelry, but the thieves overlooked other valuable items and furs. The family was away.

visited as his personal "calling card." Over the five years nearly 1,000 homes were looted in this manner. Police were baffled. Then Detective Lt. Harold A. Brownfield took charge of the investigation in June 1954. He organized a dragnet of some 700 civil defense auxiliary police and scores of off-duty policemen. One Friday night, all sat in darkened houses scattered through the district waiting for the Shovel Burglar to appear. But the burglar, apparently learning of the trap, stopped his operations for two weeks. Brownfield carried on the search, talking to dozens of public meetings, urging citizens to be on the lookout. The burglaries suddenly halted last April 9. That was the date Ignatius Kee, who had heard Brownfield speak, spotted Schiltz prying open a window with a shovel at a nearby house. Kee and two neighbors, one of them with a shotgun, raced to the house. Schiltz, talking glibly, almost convinced them he had been looking for a dog, but when the three insisted he tell his story to police, he suddenly stuck his hand in a pocket and told them he had a gun and would shoot to kill. Schiltz drove away but the three men identified him in a police lineup soon afterward. Schiltz, of suburban Livonia, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of attempted burglary, but denied any of the 1,000-odd other burglaries. Recorder's Judge O. Z. Ide freed him on $2,500 bond for sentence Sept. 13.
